JUST PUBLISHED.
CAPE BRETON ILLUSTRATED.
Historic, Picturesque and Descriptive.
With Thirty Full-Page Photo-Engravings.
By JOHN M. GOW.
Cloth, 433 pages, 7x9 inches, $3.00; Full Morocco, gilt edges, 8x10 inches, $5.00.
This magnificent volume is one of the most sumptuous in printing, binding and illustration that has yet issued from our press. The literary merit of the book is worthy of its sumptuous setting. He who knows the history of Cape Breton will largely know the history of North America for the last two hundred years. Indeed, the author goes further back than that to discover the foundation of the civilization of which the early settlement of America was the outcome. He devotes eloquent chapters to British and American Puritanism, and to "The Briton as an Organizer and a Colonist" and "The Frenchman as Missionary and Colonist." Several chapters are given to the description of the fortress of Louisburg and the story of its successive sieges. The more recent history of Cape Breton is fully given in its relations to the Dominion of Canada, and a chapter is devoted to its scenic attractions. The author writes with eloquence and picturesqueness. His style is at times brilliant, and always interesting. Thirty admirable engravings—several of them pretty combinations—present the many points of historic interest and reveal glimpses of the magnificent scenery of this island. We present this book to the Canadian public as one of the most important contributions to our national literature that has yet appeared.
