

far as any of such particulars can be known to him; and the master of every vessel bound outwards from any port in this Province to any port or place beyond seas, or on any voyage to any place without the limits of this Province, whether in ballast or laden, shall, before departure, come before the Collector or other proper officer, and answer all such questions concerning the vessel, and the cargo, if any, and the crew, and the voyage, as shall be demanded of him by such officer; and thereupon the Collector or other proper officer, if such vessel be laden, shall make out and give to the master a certificate of the clearance of such vessel for her intended voyage, containing an account of the total quantities of the several sorts of goods laden therein, or a certificate of her clearance in ballast, as the case may be; and if the vessel shall depart without such clearance, or if the master shall deliver a false content, or shall not truly answer the questions demanded of him, he shall forfeit the sum of one hundred pounds.

Questions to be answered.

Clearance to be granted.

Penalty for leaving without a clearance or not answering questions truly.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That if after any goods shall have been duly entered, or landed to be warehoused, or entered and examined to be rewarehoused, and before the same shall have been actually deposited in the warehouse, the importer shall further enter the same, or any part for home use, or for exportation as from the warehouse, the goods so entered shall be considered as virtually and constructively warehoused or rewarehoused, as the case may be, although not actually deposited in the warehouse, and shall and may be delivered and taken for home use or exportation, as the case may be.

Goods entered for warehousing to be deemed warehoused in certain cases.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That upon the entry outwards of any goods to be exported from the Customs' warehouse, either by sea or by land or inland navigation, as the case may be, the person entering the same shall give security by bond, in double the duties of importation on such goods, and with a sufficient surety, to be approved by the Collector or proper officer, that the same shall, when the entry aforesaid shall be by sea, be actually exported, and when the entry aforesaid shall be by land or inland navigation, be landed or delivered at the place for which they shall be entered outwards, or in either case be otherwise accounted for to the satisfaction of the Collector or proper officer, and that such proof or certificate that such goods have been so exported, landed, or delivered, or otherwise legally disposed of, as the case may be, as shall be required by any regulation of the Governor in Council, shall be produced to the Collector or proper officer within a period to be appointed in such bond.

Bond to be given on entry for exportation of goods from warehouse conditions.

XXXIV. And whereas it is expedient that certain goods when imported into this Province should be marked or branded, with such mark or brand as may hereafter be deemed necessary, in order to denote the payment of the duty to which such goods are liable: Be it therefore enacted, That the Governor in Council may, by regulation, direct that after any goods have been entered at the Custom House, and before the same shall be discharged by the officers and delivered into the custody of the importer or his agent, such goods shall be marked or stamped in such manner or form as may be directed by such regulations for the security of the Revenue, and by such officer as may be directed or appointed for that purpose.

Duty-paid goods may be branded or marked under regulations to be made by the Governor in Council.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall at any time forge or counterfeit any mark or brand to resemble any mark or brand which shall be provided and used for the purposes of this Act, or shall forge or counterfeit the impression of any such mark or brand, or shall sell or expose to sale, or have in his, her, or their custody

Penalty for forging marks, &c.
