It was, decided to call a nominating convention in the near future, to name a candidate for the approaching federal election.

O. S. Game to be Replayed. We understand that the football match between Owen Sound and Mildmay, which was called off on account of rain, after thirty minaccount of rain, after thirty min-utes play, when the score stood a tie at one all, has been ordered to be replayed at Mildmay. It is probable that a date may be ar-ranged immediately after the com-pletion of the district finals, as set out in the present schedule.

Dirty Piece of Vandalism. There are some pretty small men in this county, but the meanest we have heard for some time was the scamp who entered the school prem-ises at Union Public School No. 3 ises at Union Public School No. a and 15 on the Howick and Carrick townline on Monday night and de-stroyed the flower beds and some of the trees and shrubs. An indi-vidual who would be guilty of an action like this should be locked up.

Stars Win at Walkerton. The Mildmay Stars were rather fortunate to win the league game at Walkerton on Monday evening, when they defeated the fast county town outfit by 1 to 0. The Walkerton players have been practising faith-fully this spring, and are all in good condition, and while our fel-lows had considerable of the advan-tage in the first period, they were forced to extend themselves to the limit to keep the home team from scoring in the second half. Ayton Presbyterians Voted Out. Ayton Presbyterians voted Out. The Ayton Presbyterian congre-gation, which for years has been in a circuit with Mildmay, took a vote on church union last week, the result of which was announced on Sunday, and which was announced on favor of remaining out of the union. As Mildmay is now a union church, it is certain that the Ayton vote will mean the breaking up of the circuit, as it is unlikely that two distinct denominations would be served by one pastor.
