AMERICA

Many a man's estate, left to the management of individuals, has, through gross mismanagement, dwindled to nothing. This is one of the chief reasons why the legal profession and the courts heartily endorse the appointment of trust companies to act as executor and guardian in connection with estates. This fact is worthy of your consideration. If you don't find it convenient to call, write for particulars.

 The money you save, instead of being a comfort, may be a care, if you have to worry as to its safety. Banish worry by depositing it in the Bank of Hamilton, which has safeguarded the earnings of the thrifty for forty years in good times and bad, building up, year by year, a Surplus now 25 per cent. greater than its Capital.

THRILLING EXPERIENCES AGAIN RELATED

(By Special Wire to The Courier.)
 MONTREAL, Aug. 25.—More stories of thrilling experiences in the war zone were told to-day by refugees who arrived here on the Allan liner Grampian and the Donaldson liner Senia, both from Glasgow. Mrs. T. C. Bergerson, from Chicago, who was in Vienna when the war broke out, got as far as Liege before being held up. Notwithstanding that she had plenty of paper money, she could buy nothing, and was without food and drink for three days. Mrs. Bergerson stood up in a train all one night and an airship was travelling above them most of the time. Finally she reached London.

Rev. Father Finn, Chicago, said the only Germans that he saw who wanted war were young men from 18 to 20. The better class of people knew what it would mean to Germany and its trade. Father Finn was in Dresden at the outbreak of hostilities, and landed ultimately in London with only a shilling in his pocket, upon which he existed for three days.

E. L. Newcombe K.C., deputy minister of justice, was one of the Grampian's passengers. The war caused him to cancel his trip to Paris on legal business. He said Great Britain could be expected to maintain the splendid confidence it had already displayed as it felt that it had the whole world behind it in this fight.

Miss Peregrine, Galt, Ontario, a school teacher, tells of how the military in the Orkney Islands, where she was staying when war was declared, disappeared in a single night nobody knew exactly when or where.

WAR SPECTRE STIRS THE MOTHER COUNTRY

Realities of the Struggle Casting a Gloom Over the British Isles.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—This day of waiting has brought home the realities of war to the British people. Not before has the whole nation been so deeply moved. Many thousands have relatives and friends in the army; they know that the casualties must be great, that the death roll must probably be heavier than in the case of any British force since the Crimean war.

The only information of events the country has had is contained in brief official bulletins of a vague character and these have not been characteristic throughout London the people last night are in much more serious mood than at any time since they faced the war. There are no scenes of gaiety in the theatres and restaurants last night and the crowded streets are very quiet.

This does not mean that there is any less determination on the part of Britons—only that the people are beginning to realize what this war may cost them. On every side are heard declarations that the country must be prepared for a long and exhausting struggle.

Refugees Flock to Britain. Every boat from Belgium comes crowded with impoverished refugees who have fled before the German invasion. An organization is being formed to care for these people and part of the Prince of Wales relief fund which amounts to more than $5,000,000, will be sent to Antwerp for sufferers who have taken refuge there. Thousands of Belgians have crossed the French border for asylum, and a committee will arrange for their relief.

Britain and France apparently propose to care for their smaller ally, who thus far has borne the brunt of the hardships which the war entails. The blockade of the German Pacific seaport, Tsing-Tau, was begun by the allies.

Obituary

Late Mrs. Margaret McIntosh. Many friends will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Margaret McIntosh, who passed away early Tuesday morning at the residence of Dr. Gamble. The deceased was the mother of Mrs. Gamble, and had during the latter years of her life resided with the doctor and his wife. Well known in Toronto, Mrs. McIntosh came to this city some twelve years ago and has been sailing for the last ten years. It is eight years since her husband predeceased her while living here. The late Mrs. McIntosh was a member of Zion Presbyterian Church, from which she will be greatly missed. Besides numerous friends, there is one daughter, Mrs. Gamble, to mourn the loss. The funeral will take place on Thursday to Mount Hope, and will be of a private character.
