Accepts Invitation to the Council of War of the Empire

PREMIER BORDEN

Ottawa, Dec. 29.—Sir Robert Borden has accepted the invitation of the British Government to attend the Imperial War Conference.

Though with the session of parliament impending, the Prime Minister's duties are exceedingly onerous, he feels himself bound to go to London, where matters of transcendent, importance connected with the war are to be discussed. The conference, as announced, is to deal with the pro-8.32 p.m.—For Hamilton, Toronto secution of the war, the condition upon which peace may be made and the great problems that will come after wards

It is the recognition of the great mportance of this historic gathering Port Huron and intermediate sta- and the need of his presence that caused the Prime Minister to have parliament called two weeks earlier than had been intended. Substantial progress in the sessional work has een anticipated before the premier leaves. Whether the House will adjourn during Sir Robert's absence as was done in 1911, or what other course will be taken will depend very greatly upon the character of de velopments subsequent to the open ing. At this distance they cannot be accurately forecasted.
