Representatives Appointed to Confer on War Chest Project

At the meeting of the local Council of Women on Friday Mrs. George Watt presented the auditors' statement dealing with all the funds handled by the society since the out-break of the war. This statement was adopted, and on a motion made Watt and seconded by Mrs. Sutherland, it will be published immediately in the local press. Thus the public will be shown how excellently kept are the books of the society and what a higher percentage of pedged monies has been col-

On a motion made by Mrs. Buck and seconded by Mrs. Gordon Duncan, a very hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Mrs. George Watt and the auditors, Messrs. S. H. J. Reid, Fred W. Frank, and C. J. Parker, for their painstaking work in preparing the statement.

opportunity of catering for the luncheon to be served to the howlers at their tournament on July 1st and arrangements are already in the hands of a capable committee. As a special plea has just been received from the Canadian War Contingent Association for funds to supply Christmas pudding to all Canadalan soldiers abroad, it was moved by Mrs. Wm. Watt and seconded by Mrs. J. Heath, that all money collected from the tournament up to one hundred dollars, be donated to this fund. Carried.

Mrs. Wlm. Watt, treasurer of the committee which arranged for the conference luncheons, read a statement showing how this hospitality was paid for through the generosity of the Ladies' Aid Societies of the The routine business having thus been disposed of, Rev. G. A. Woodside addressed the meeting to explain the proposed War Chest. In a concise and lucid manner

Common garden sage browed into a heavy tea with sulphur added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. hair beautifully dark and luxuriant.
Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, streaked or gray. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get a bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound at any drug store. drug store all ready for use. This is the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hai with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell because it does it so naturally, so evenly You just dampen a sponge brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after an other application or two, your hair beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant. This preparation is a delightfu

Mr. Woodside described the operations of this way of raising money for all war charities, whereby one campaign collects for British Cross, Canadian Red Cross, France's Day, the Patriotic Fund, etc. On the conclusion of his address Mrs. Buck were appointed as representatives to meet with others interested in the War Chest project and to discuss its feasibility.
