BRUTAL MURDER ON HIGH SEAS

Cabin Boy Tells of Captain's Fiendishness.

Drove Sailor Overboard, Let Him Drown.

New York Report—Seafaring of the sort that flourished in the early eighteenth century, when a foremost hand was virtually a slave, and his brawny skipper, armed with a belaying pin, his undisputed master, was described in federal court here to-day by John W. Campbell, a 22-year-old high school boy of Maquoketa, Iowa, who answered the call of the sea and ran away from home to skip with Skipper Adolph C. Pedersen, as cabin boy on the antiquated barkentine Puako.

Campbell was the first witness for the government, which has charged Pedersen and his son, Adolph, mate of the Puako, in a quaint, old-fashioned indictment, with the murder on the high seas of Axel Hansen, a seaman. They are alleged to have driven Hansen overboard by cruelty and to have left him to perish in the sea.

After reciting how the lure of the sea had drawn him from his studies and led him to embark with Skipper Pedersen at Victoria, B. C., as cabin boy, Campbell was asked to recite what happened on board the bark Puako on the morning of August 6, 1918, as the little vessel slipped through the waves with all sails set, for Capetown, South Africa.

"I came on deck at 1 a. m. to stand watch," Campbell began. "Jack Joe, Henry Riley and Axel Hansen were in the same watch and were already on deck."

"The captain's son, who was in charge, told Hansen to go aloft and loose the royal's. Hansen went aloft and loosened the sail. He then came down and I saw him talking to the mate. Suddenly I heard a sharp sound as if one man clapping another's face. Then I saw the mate strike and kick Hansen, and Hansen came racing down the deck with the mate close behind him. When he got to the starboard side, near the stern, he slipped under the rail and went overboard."

The mate, Campbell continued, ran to the wheel and ordered Jack Joe to bring the ship about, but a moment later Skipper Pedersen appeared, looked over the stern of the bark where Hansen was clinging to the log line, and then turned to the helmsman demanding to know who ordered him to swing the ship around.

"There is a man overboard, and the second mate told me to swing the wheel about," Campbell said Jack Joe answered.

"To hell with the man overboard," Campbell declared the skipper yelled. "Then," the witness continued, "he ordered Jack Joe to turn the boat back into its course, and picking up a tiller pin ordered both Riley and myself to go below. As I started forward I looked back in the sea and saw Hansen struggling at the end of the log line and I heard him shriek for help three times. The vessel continued on its course and Hansen was left to perish in the sea."

During the trip to Cape Town, he declared, all the men on board, with the exception of himself and the ship's carpenter were taken below and after being placed in irons were beaten until their bodies were covered with welts. A heavy piece of wire and a razor strop, he testified were employed by the skipper and his son to administer the punishment. They also kicked the prisoners with their heavy boots, he declared. Skipper Pedersen, he said, referred to the punishment as the "third degree."

RHINE REPUBLIC.

U. S. Army There Seems to Be Skeptical.

Coblentz Special Cable.—(By the Associated Press.)—Regarding the reports received here of the launching of the Rhineland Republic, to-day's summary of intelligence issued by the American army says:

"The events of the last few days, which have culminated in a definite attempt at Wiesbaden to proclaim a Rhineland Republic, independent of Prussia, but nevertheless part of the German Federation, might be regarded as in the nature of comic opera were it not for the fact that they involve the deliberations at Versailles to a certain extent. To the impartial observer, the importance of the movement consists chiefly in the opposition which has developed against it."

"One sees no concerted hilarious greeting of this proffered freedom from Prussian rule, but one does see and hear much to the contrary. It would seem that if, in the course of events, the Rhineland is to become independent of Berlin, it will require a set of German apostles better known than those who hitherto have been fathering the movement."

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the local diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition hearing may be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the Mucous Surfaces.

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE.

Detective Foster and Provincial Constable Ross, following an alleged confession of having killed his father, is thought to clear up a mystery that has baffled residents and officials since last fall. Sam Grummett, well-known farmer, disappeared from his home on October 30th, and nothing was ever heard of him. His horse and buggy turned up at a neighbor's, but no trace of the farmer was found. Detective Foster has been working steadily on the case ever since, and yesterday in company with Ross visited the Pettapiece home, and as a result of a conversation with the son, he was placed under arrest, and is awaiting preliminary hearing Wednesday morning.

Reuben Grummett is reported by the officers to have admitted shooting his father following a quarrel and to have buried the remains in a manure heap. The horse was then driven off a distance and sent galloping away, and was found at a neighbor's. Friction in the house followed by the ordering of the son and his wife, with whom Grummett, senior, lived, to move out, is said to have provoked the quarrel which ended in the killing.
