The fate of a nine year old Tweed boy the other day ought to be a lesson to those boys who are fond of testing their agility in umping on and off trains. The above youngster, with some other lads, was catching on a freight train and riding as far as the railway bridge outside the town. He umped off and landed on some ballast ying beside the track. He slipped and fell under the car, and his foot was taken off at the ankle.

It is generally believed that we are on the eve of great commercial prosperity and the young men or women who are ready for the positions that will open up, are the ones that will be selected. There is no better place to prepare than at the Brockville Business college? Miss Maud Stratton has secured a position in Brockville as stenographer and Edwin Scammell has position in the Grand Trunk office. Both are graduates of the Brockville Business College.

Death of Mrs. (Rev.) Alex. McDonald.

On Sunday night last, shortly after midnight, the illness of Mrs. (Rev.).
Alex. McDonald (nee Miss Annie
Kelly) terminated fatally at Galt hospital, where she had gone for surgical treatment from her home in Hes peler, Ont. The remains were brought to Athens for interment, arriving on Tuesday morning, accompanied by the bereaved husband and her sister, Miss Lucy Kelly, teacher of the school at Washburn's Corners, who had gone a few days previously to attend at her bedside, The casket was conveyed to the home of Misses Maggie and Lucy Kelly and during the day many of the friends of the earlier years of deceased called to take a last look at the form they had loved so well. The funeral took place at 3 p. m. on Tuesday and it was largely attended. After service in the Baptist church, conducted by The Kingston Times says: To show the pastor, Rev. G. N.
