(Supplied to The Planet by Press Agents.)

TO-NIGHT AT THE GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

There should be a great gathering of the fair sex at the Opera House to-night, when the Maynard Stock Copen a week's engagement with that world famous romantic melo-drama, "The Two Orphans," with Miss Sara (MacDendle of Pharma the Cripole" a Two Orphans," with Miss Sara Donald as "Pierre the Cripple," a MacDonald as "Pierre the Cripple," a performance at once unique and interesting, she being the only lady artist who ever attempted the part. Messrs. Edwin and Frederick Maynard, her co-stars, are actors of well-known ability, and in the parts of the "Chevalier" and "Jacques Frechard!" give most finished performances. The company comes well recommended and company comes well recommended, and nothing should be wanting to insure a most enjoyable and interesting even-a most enjoyaoje and interesting even-ing's entertainment.

Ladies can exchange their tickets at Briscos', where seats can be reserved upon application, thus avoiding the rush at the doors.

TILBURY WOMAN GETS FORTUNE

Sole Heiress to Buffalo Estate of Some Ten Thousand Dollars.

Mrs. Anna Hartley Gets Pleasant Remembrance from Aunt Who

Buffalo Express: For thirty years Anna Maley lived as a recluse and died on March 24 in No. 602 Washington street. The sole heir to the estate of about $10,000 has just been located in Tilbury, Ont. The heir, a niece of the dead woman, is Mrs Anna Hartley.

B. W. McIntyre, who was recently named as administrator of the estate on the petition of two creditors of Miss Maley, got a clue to Mrs. Hartley from a letter written about twenty years ago which he found in a trunk.

twenty years ago which he sound in a trunk.

Miss Maley was about 74 years old when she died. There was a story that in her youth she was disappointed in love by a lawyer who afterwards became quite prominent. She carned her living as a dressmaker. Most of her wealth was in banks.

LONG LIFE TO HIM,

The man with the smile is the fellow

to meet
With hand that is ready and glad;
He cheers you and ever is ready to greet
And lift up the heart that is sad;
His burdens are plenty, but they are unknown
To any one else but himself;
He puts on a smile and he gulps down

TOGO'S NEWEST STRATEGY.

Tokio, April 17.—5 p. m.—The Japanese daring to the return the properties of the system of placing deadly counter mines is due largely to a series lof careful observations made by the Japanese during their previous attacks an Poot Arthur. The Jananese and the disabling of the Pobieda.

After these occurrences, the cruisers Nishin and Kasuga were used to bombard Port Arthur. They possess the highest angled guns in the fleet, capable of throwing shells to the elevated Russian land works, which are beyond attainment by the average naval weapon.

Vec-Admiral Togo calls this attack on Port Arthur the eighth, whereas, here it is numbered the seventh probable explanation is that admiral Togo regards the operations as two distinct attacks and poot Arthur. The Japanese during their previous attacks and poot Arthur. They are also proud of the Pobieda.
