THE RIVAL SHORTSTOPS: JACK BARRY, AT BAT, AND ART FLETCHER.

Again Jack Barry and Arthur Fletcher will hook up in a world's series. They met in 1911 and in the "langwidge" of the emphatic Barry, "smeared it all over" his rival. Barry, supposedly a weak itter, gave "Home Run" Baker a chase for honors, his average for the series being 368. Four of his seven hits were doubles. le outfielded Fletcher not only on paper, but on the field. In the 1911 series Fletcher's batting average was 130. He made three hits in 23 turns at bat, and

From the funds each player is to receive for every game he wins, the rest of the money will be divided in equal shares between the players. If the pro-fit derived from the publication of the book should exceed the sum of $2,500 the balance is to be devoted to the establishment of an international associa-tion, the principal function of the organization to consist of arranging all sorts of international contests.

The principals have decided to play all the games in Europe. It is expected that arrangements will be made to cable the moves of each game to this country in order to satisfy American chess patrons, of whom there will be quite a number who will subscribe to the book. Should that be done it would make little difference whether the games be played in London, Paris, Berlin, Vienna St. Petersburg, or any other city.

USE PARI-MUTUELS

Montreal Sept. 30 In connection with the decision of the Dorval Park Jockey Club to abandon bookmaking after the single experiment with that system at their inaugural meeting, it is reported that the same step was deeided on more than a week ago at a meeting of the directors of the Montreal Jockey Club. It is said that the directors of the two clubs are co-operating in the matter, and that the course of one will be sustained by the other. Nothing has been obtained to confifm the statement officially, as President Sir Montagu Allan and Secretary Northey, of Blue Bon are out of the city; but the news co from an authoritative and well-in-form source, and is undoubtedly correct.

BATTING AND PITCHING

Philadelphia, Sept. 30.—Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit Tigers, is not rilling to pick a winner of the world's series. This is how Jennings talks now! "The world's series this year between e Giants and the Athletics will re pitching. The batting should be even and the winner? Well, it's a toss up! There is no denying the fact that Connie mand, but I do not believe that his pitcher ships, they have had the opposite effect. will show the class. On the other hand, the Athletics will be up against Mathewson, Marquard, Tesreau and Demaree, twirlers who are apt to cause them a whole lot of trouble.

"I would not care to say that in my opinion the Giants will win, for two years ago I was accused of treachery to the American league when a newspaper man saw me talking to my old friend, and former manager, John McGraw, while the series was in progress.

"I really believe that the big games will be close and bitterly fought. Whe ther or not the Philadelphia sluggers can overcome New York's good pitching time only will tell."
