perienced, and the result was in doubt until the last few minutes. A new face to be seen on the local line was that of O-borne, who played a star game. The locals drew first blood in two minutes. Brantford evened up five minutes later, after which 8t. Kitts scored twice. It was then the same story as last Friday. Brantford scored four goals in short or-der, making the half-time score 5 to 3. A few minutes after half-time 8t. Kitts scored another, making it 5 to 4. Excitement reached fever heat, but the locals were unable to tie, due to the good work of Meade in goal. The telephone bell rings, and you hear

For women who feel 'worn out'

You will be far stronger daytimes; your meals will taste better and do you more real good; you will sleep sounder nights-and awake far more refreshed-if you will drink regularly twice a day a pint of rich, nourishing stout, brewed in Canada from finest Irish barley malt (most nutritious) and the best hops that grow. That means nothing else than Grant's dublin stout-a matured you 'phone your dealer.

(hence non-bilious), delicious beverage that feeds the body, steadies the nerves and enriches the blood. It is good for you, sick or well. But DO get the name right when
