Kingston Council May Object to Compulsory Vaccination.

Kingston Ceuncil May Object to Compulsory Vaccination.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Kingston, Ont., March 1.—A by-law is to be presented to-night at the meeting of the City Council to repeal the compulsory vaccination by-law, which tee Board of Health last week decided to enforce. The teeling seems to be growing that the board made a mistake in reviving the matter just when the commercial interests of the city were recovering from the stagnation occasioned by the recent epidemic scare. A number of older men who voted in favor of the compulsory vaccination by-law have declared their intention of voting against the by-law to-night. The Board of Health meets to-morrow afternoon to consider taking action in regard to the univaccinated, and it is understood that, if the Council does not repeal the compulsory vaccination by-law to-might, Mayor Gooper, who has already declared that he would knock down the doctor that attempted to vaccinate him, will be the first one to be prosecuted that the would knock down the doctor that attempted to vaccinate him, will be the first one to be prosecuted that the would knock down the doctor that attempted to vaccinate him, will be the first one to be prosecuted that would snock down the doctor that attempted to vaccinate him, will be the first one to be prosecuted that when the camp to make the prosecuted that the would knock down the doctor that attempted to vaccinate him, will be the first one to be prosecuted that will be extended to the first one to be prosecuted that was not entirely unexpected.
