BLESSED HALF MILLION CATHOLIC DEAD

Archbishop Bruchesi Hopes That Religious Barriers Will Be Swept Away, and That One Cemetery Will Hold All.

Montreal, Sept. 18—The feature of the annual ceremony of blessing the half million dead lying in the Catholic cemetery behind Mount Royal this afternoon, was the reference by Archbishop Bruchesi to the recent Eucharistic Congress. His Grace paid an eloquent tribute to "The support received from our separated brethren," and added, he hoped the time was coming when through the mercy of God there would be but one cemetery in Montreal, and that all religious barriers separating the people would disappear.
