TOWN TOPICS.

*A child's among ye, takin' notes,
An' faith he'll print it.*

Outside views, inside views, photos—every kind of picture can be had at Geo. Stewart's. A GOOD PRESENT.—The most useful gift you can make is to give a Writ Pen. Apply to D. McHillicuddy, agent, Goderich.
Now that Old Probabilities has settled down to hard pan—or apparently so—the patrons of F. & A. Virdham will take advantage of the weather, and show that they are the best dressed gentlemen in the county.
Diagonally across from the fountain on the west side of the Square is the Pharmacy, where everything in the drug line, and the latest novelties in notions, can be secured. Remember this when you go to the fountain.
THE WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION will meet regularly for the transaction of business every Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Temperance Hall. Every woman interested in the work is cordially invited to attend.
It is a strange thing to announce a rush of business in any line at this season of the year, but R. K. Sallows, the photographer, has had a big rush in the picture line. Good work and good material always tell, and along that line he has succeeded in building up a name as a picture framer, second only to that which he has secured as a photographer.

BRIEFLETS.
Mr. John Yates and wife, of Chicago, are visiting relatives in town.
Capt. Gibson is on a visit to some of his sons and daughters in the Northwest.
Mrs. Hurd, of London, and two children, are staying in Goderich for the summer.
Dr. McDonagh will be in Goderich for consultation on the first Saturday of every month.
Mrs. Wm. McLean was at Toronto, attending the convention of the W. C. T. U., last week.
Rev. A. McMillan, of Auburn, preached most acceptably in Knox church last Sabbath evening.

The Toronto World asks: Which is the better English? "Will it stop raining this summer?" or "Shall it quit raining before autumn?"
Dr. M. Nicholson, the West-end dentist, makes the prediction of the natural teeth a specialty. Gas administered from 9 a.m. for the painless extraction of teeth.
Dr. Whitley has now an up-to-date office in the Opera House Block, where he can be found during business hours. The rooms have been specially fitted up for the convenience of patients.
The "Johnstown sufferers" are now beginning to make their presence felt. The Stratford Beacon recommends that tramps making such claims should at once be handed over to the police.

Boys! now is the time to purchase your bicycles for the race on the 1st of July. Geo. W. Thomson's store is headquarters for pianos, organs, sewing machines, bicycles, violins, mouth organs, flutes, waltz lamps, needles, oils and repairs.
AN IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT.—The new Soft Stop and Practice Pedal attachment to a Newcomb Upright Piano serves the nerves of the listener or performer, when practicing, as well as the instrument from wear, and preserves the tone.
THE CANADIAN SOCIETY OF MUSICIANS.—The Fifth Annual Meeting of the Canadian Society of Musicians is to be held in the Normal School Building, Toronto, July 2nd, 3rd and 4th. Judging from the program just received, the meeting will be of great interest and educational value to all music teachers and others interested in musical progress. Program can be obtained by addressing S. P. Halls, B. A., Goderich.

LACROSSE MATCH.—Last Friday afternoon a lacrosse match was played between the Seaforth Juniors and the Beavers, of this town, on the old lacrosse grounds. After 40 minutes' hard play the ball was sent through the Goderich goal. The Beavers, however, took the next three goals, in 31, 64 and 65 minutes, respectively, thus securing the game by three goals to one. Both teams played good lacrosse, but the Goderich boys were too active for the Seaforths.

Town council will meet this (Friday) evening.
A man who is given to liquor should not have liquor given to him.—New Proverb.
The cinder tracks, when properly packed, make fine footwalks for pedestrians.
A cheap excursion to Toronto, under Masonic auspices, will take place on Monday next.
The new fence on the Park House property came very near appropriating the town pavilion.
Mr. Geo. H. Old, who recently underwent an amputation operation, is, we are pleased to learn, steadily improving.
A new-mixed drink is called a "business brace," but its practical tendency is more that of a business suspender.—Baltimore American.
Tuesday last Mr. P. O'Dea rejoiced in a catch of three dozen pickers. Mr. O'Dea is one of our most enthusiastic and successful fishermen.
The Saturday excursions from Brantford to Goderich and Kincardine are now running. Return fare $1, good to return on any train on Monday.
The Huron county council has granted 25 cents extra to each man who goes to camp in addition to the government pay. The men will therefore receive this year 75 cents a day and rations.
Ashfield R. C. picnic will be held next Wednesday, June 26th, in Mr. M. Dean's grove. A full array of oratorical talent is one of the many attractions. The picnic promises to be a great gathering.
The Stratford city clerk states that not more than one-half of the births, deaths and marriages are registered. This is probably true of more places than the Classic City. How is Goderich?
The Philadelphia Inquirer calls attention to the great scarcity of gold dollars, and says they command a premium. We have noticed a great scarcity not only of gold dollars but of any kind.
Last year when the price of potatoes was very low a Dundee farmer put a lot of them among last week's potatoes. When it was opened the other day they were as fresh as when they were dug.
Remember the sale of work and entertainment to be held in the basement of Knox church, this (Friday) afternoon and evening, under the auspices of the Mission Band. Tickets only 15 cents, can be obtained at the door.
The brickwork on Robt McLean's new block is about completed by contractor Jamieson Reid, and presents a handsome appearance. It fills a felt want in that corner of the Square, and is quite an addition to the architecture of the town.
The two fountains presented to the town by the ladies of Goderich have been placed in position on the Square—one at the head of East-st and the other at the head of West-st—and have been well patronized by both bipeds and quadrupeds.
The man who is too lazy to work, and who blisters his arm with Croton oil to work upon the sympathies of the gullible, is now on his rounds, and was in town during the week. This time he was on his way to North Bay, in search of his brother.
A misadventured farmer, who boasts that he has not taken a newspaper in his house for the last forty years, was visited the other day by two confidence men and swindled out of $2,000. He would have made money by taking and reading a newspaper.
LOOKING FOR LIGHT.—Mayor Butler and Councilor Morton of Goderich were in Brantford last week inspecting his electric light system. Mayor Henry Sheriff Scarfe, and ex-Mayor Robt. Henry showed the visitors around. They drove to Waterford Wednesday evening.—Brantford Expositor.
A law social in connection with the Victoria-st Methodist church will be held on Thursday evening, the 27th inst., at the parsonage. Refreshments, including strawberries, will be served during the evening. Mayor Henry Potter will shortly remove to a new station, it is hoped there will be a large attendance, to enjoy the last social event at which he will be present.
The lecture on last Tuesday evening, by Mr. E. Odium, M.A., on Japan, did not attract so large a gathering as the merits of the address deserved. Mr. Odium has recently returned from Japan, where he travelled considerably, and is able to give very clear descriptions of the manners and customs of that interesting country. The lecture was given additional interest by the appearance of the lecturer in numerous Japanese costumes.
PROPOSED CREAMERY.—Mr. Mitchell, of New Hamburg, was in town this week making investigation into the possibility of starting a creamery and cheese factory in the neighborhood of Goderich. He is well pleased with the locality, and believes if the farmers do their share in patronizing the enterprise a profitable business can be established. Mr. Mitchell has had thirteen years' experience in the work, and is the winner of a large number of prizes at competitions in his line. Mr. Mitchell proposes visiting Goderich again at an early date, and being a thoroughly practical man, should receive the support of the farming community in his efforts to establish this new enterprise.

Stratford Daily Herald.—"Mr. D. M. Buchanan, B. A., a student of Knox College, Toronto, preached two good sermons in Knox church yesterday. Mr. Buchanan, it is understood, will assist Rev. Mr. Wright in his ministerial labors during the summer." Mr. Buchanan was formerly a resident of Goderich, and attended our High School.
ATTACKING THE OATS.—The farmers in the neighborhood of Guelph are making great complaint over the devastations of a new grub which is playing havoc with the oats. It is about the shape of a piece of pencil an inch long, and has been ploughed up and others will have to follow. It attacks the root of the cereal and soon leaves the ground very bare.
FOR THE CAMP.—The Goderich and Duncannon companies of the 33rd Batt., left for camp by train at noon on Tuesday. Both companies had a full complement of men and presented a good appearance. Goderich company is officered by Captain Crockett and Lieuts. Dudley Holmes and Wells; and Duncannon is in command of Capt. Veroe and Lieut. Young. The staff officers from this section are Surgeon Holmes, Asst. Surgeon Simmon, Paymaster Jordan and Quartermaster Beck.
Dr. McMeekin has sold his valuable horse and lot to Mr. Thos. E. Durnin, recently of Dakota, and will, we understand, live in Toronto after October 1st. The many friends of the doctor in Goderich will be sorry to lose him, as he has been a respected resident of the town for nearly a quarter of a century. The members of his family will also be greatly missed in social circles and in connection with church work. The best wishes of the community will accompany Dr. McMeekin and his family to their new home.
EUREKA COUNCIL NO. 103, R. T. OF E.—The semi-annual election of officers took place in the Temperance Hall on Tuesday evening, June 19th, and the following were elected: Select Councilor, J. W. Vanatter; Past Councilor, H. H. Rines; Vice Councilor, Robert Gore; Chaplain, Wm Noble; Rec. Sec., J. A. Nattel; Asst. Rec. Sec., J. Thomson; Sec., Jas. A. Reid; Treas., H. C. Dunlop; Herald, Oliver Pennington; Deputy Herald, Miss Nellie Reid; Guard, Miss L. Vanstone; Sentinel, E. McKenzie.
Mr. C. W. Andrews, lessee of the Grand Opera House, has just completed arrangements with Mr. O. B. Shepperd, of the Grand Opera House, Toronto, whereby a limited number of attractions will be booked for Goderich immediately after the company appears in Toronto. Our people may therefore expect a class of attractions the coming season that will be second to none in the Dominion and we trust will be profitable to the local manager, who has spared no trouble or expense to bring about this contract with Mr. Shepperd.
C. P. RAILWAY—WINGHAM TO GODERICH.—The Wingham Advance says: "It will be in the memory of our readers that the C. P. R. has been extending Goderich obtained a charter for the extension of the C. P. R. from Wingham to that town. This charter is on the eve of expiring; in fact, has virtually expired, without anything being done. Mr. H. C. Meyer, seeing that was likely to happen, communicated with Goderich, and to a great extent tried to avoid the lapse of the charter. He advised the town what steps should be taken to prevent it, and even went the length of offering to take the charter. This would have involved decisive action on his part, and he was not prepared to do so. The Council, and, from what we can learn, town close prying, followed by discourtesy to Mr. Meyer in not replying to his last and definite letter in due time, has, as the saying is, "knocked the charter in the head," and the matter must now die. However, we are to learn the Council or citizens of our county town contemplate getting another charter, but before doing so we would recommend them to decide to stand by it and do as our townsmen did—put their shoulders to the wheel and make it go. They want Mr. Meyer to stir them up, but Wingham can't stir them yet."

DOMINION DAY IN GODERICH.—The anniversary of the natal day of the Dominion will be celebrated in Goderich this year in a most attractive manner, and it is believed the influx of visitors will be larger than on any previous occasion. Amongst the attractions will be the launch of the new vessel built during the present year by Williams and Marlon; a series of children's games for which prizes will be given; a baseball game, and a lacrosse tournament; the formal dedication of the two fountains presented to the town by the ladies of Goderich; grand oratorio and gymnastic performances by Messrs Barnett and Simcoe, the world-renowned trapezists; military evolutions by the volunteers; and grand display of fireworks under the management of Prof. Hand, of Hamilton, in the evening. The Goderich Town Band and the Doherty Organ Co. Band, of Clinton, will furnish music during the day. A special train will leave Stratford at 8.10 a.m., calling at intermediate stations, and will arrive in Goderich at 10.30 a.m.; returning will leave Goderich at 10.30 p.m. The 4.05 afternoon train will be held over until 4.30 to accommodate excursionists who may wish to return by an earlier train than the special. There is a big day's sport in store for visitors to Goderich on Dominion day.

Rev. I. B. Wallwin, who has been appointed to Bluevale circuit, was in town last week.
Masters Sam and George McIntyre, of Salford, left last Tuesday for Vancouver, B.C., where they have secured situations.
Bishop Walsh, of London, arrived in town last week, en route to Ashfield, where a confirmation class of over sixty awaited him.
Next Tuesday, June 25th, there will be a farmer's excursion to the Agricultural College, Guelph. Tickets for the round trip only $1.10.
Geo. W. Thomson has been appointed agent for the Wanzel Cooker. A free exhibition and dinner, of which due notice will be given. Ladies especially invited to examine and judge for themselves.
The Kintail Caledonian Society will hold their annual games and sports on Dominion Day. A good program has been provided and a big day's sport is looked for. For particulars see large posters.
About a year ago a horse and buggy were stolen from J. A. Reid, our local livery stable keeper. Recently he succeeded in recovering the horse in the neighborhood of Brantford, but the buggy and the thief are still under cover.
Flower Sunday was celebrated in Knox church Sabbath last by a special sermon to the young by Rev. J. A. Anderson, which was attentively listened to and apparently appreciated. The children occupied the seats in the body of the church and each had a button-hole bouquet for decoration.
"The Roaring Foece at Goderich" is the title of Grip's main cartoon last week. It represents Sir John, Grand Master Wallace and ex Grand Sovereign Bowell as negro minstrels. Wallace is armed with the regulation "slap-stick," which he is earnestly belaboring Sir John on the most prominent portion of his anatomy, which has been carefully padded for the occasion. Bowell stands in a fright in the background and exclaims: "Careful, Wallace, don't hit him hard, to which Sir John replies: 'It makes an awful racket, but I can't feel it.' The picture just about accurately represents the purport of the Grand Lodge resolutions.—Advertiser.

LEGAL.—An action, arising out of the Racey estate, was tried at the County Court sittings, on Tuesday, before Judge Tomlin, December last. Mr. A. Knox joined in a note for $190, for the accommodation of Mr. Racey, and the same was discounted by Mr. Racey, at the bank. At the same time, or afterwards, Mr. Racey sold Mr. Knox his mare and phaeton for $190. Mr. Knox claims that the note was the consideration for the horse and phaeton, whilst the creditors allege that the whole transaction was simply a scheme to secure Mr. Knox, at the expense of the creditors. The action was brought to secure the articles named. Judgment was reserved; Manning & Scott for the estate, and Campion for defendant.

PICNIC ON DOMINION DAY.—A month's picnic will be held by St. Peter's Catholic church, on July 1st, at Beachley's Falls, 4 miles from Goderich, in a beautiful grove on the banks of the Mattland, containing fifteen acres. On the grounds will be refreshment booths, a large table for meals, ice cream, forty strings, athletic sports, the celebrated Ray Polo dance, calisthenics and much by forty little children, a grand stand where a first-class quadrille and string band will furnish the desired music for both the young and the old, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. From Goderich a free ride to the grounds and return will be given to all those attending the picnic. The bills will contain the nature of the games to be provided. A welcome is extended to all. Admission 25c.
HYMNICAL.—The Lacrosse, Wis., Republican has the following reference to a popular singer at Goderich Caledonian concerts, the occasion being his entering into matrimonial bonds:—A very pleasant wedding took place at the spacious residence of F. E. X. DeLorena, 513 South Fifth Street, at eight o'clock last evening, the contracting parties being Miss Rachel Hodge, of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Mr. Gavin Spence, a popular traveling salesman for a large wholesale grocery firm and well known in musical circles throughout the Northwest. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Faville, Pastor of the First Congregational Church. Mr. E. A. Krogh was the groom's best man, and Miss Barbara Spence, sister of the groom, the bride's best lady. There were about twenty-five invited guests present, including the Congregational Church Choir, of which Mr. Spence is the tenor. The wedding presents were numerous and valuable. Refreshments were served at ten o'clock and the evening spent in music and social conversation. At a late hour the guests departed for their homes pronouncing this as one of the pleasantest weddings they had ever witnessed. The Republican and Leader joins heartily in wishing the young couple a happy and prosperous journey through life.

The people of the western part of Turnberry township were pained to hear of the death, in Wingham, on Wednesday last week, of their old friend and neighbor, Mrs. Joseph Walton. She was a young woman, being only 33 years of age, beloved and esteemed by all who knew her. She leaves a husband and four small children.

LORD CECIL'S FATE.
Converted With Drawn Sword.
Some Incidents in the Life of the Late Lord Adelbert Percy Cecil, as Related by the Rev. W. Haslam.

From the Toronto Telegram.
It has often been remarked that when a man is under spiritual influence they manifest greater earnestness and force of conviction than men in other walks of life. Lord Adelbert Percy Cecil was not an exception to this observation.
Lord Cecil, late lieutenant 1st Rifle Brigade, was one of the younger sons of the Marquis of Exeter, and was born July 18, 1841. He is descended from William Cecil, Secretary of State under Edward VI, and Elizabeth, and elevated to the peerage under the title of Baron Burghley, Feb. 25, 1571. The marriage dates from Feb. 4, 1861. His family seat is Burghley, near Stamford, Northamptonshire; the town house is 35 Grosvenor Square, London.
Under the heading "The Young Nobleman," his conversion is thus described by the Rev. W. Haslam, formerly incumbent of Curzon Chapel, Ipswich, London, in his book "Yet Not L." Mr. Haslam several years ago conducted a series of revival meetings in Toronto.
"In 1865, one evening after I had been preaching in the Town Hall at Hythe, a young gentleman came up to me and said: 'I have been thinking of you several years.' He told me that one day while he was with his regiment in Canada, he was marching along with a drawn sword in his hand, and the band was playing a quick, lively tune, when he felt that he had reached the end of his journey, and that his sins were pardoned. He made him exceedingly happy, and he went along with a light, buoyant step, scarcely conscious of anything but his joy. One afternoon I was invited by Lord A. to his room in the officers' quarters to give an address. There were present four officers of all grades, from a colonel down to an ensign. They were free and friendly enough with me till after the prayer for a blessing on our gathering. Then, as if they were afraid some action would take place, the majority of them went away behind me, 'out of range,' as they called it, and sat upon a colonel's bed at the other end of the room. One evening after my address I called on some one to pray. In an instant Lord A. broke out in prayer as if he could not restrain himself. The adjutant was present. Lord A. called to the colonel and placed under arrest. The regiment with the obnoxious officer was shortly afterwards ordered to Canada. Then my lord had more liberty and used it freely till he came into collision with a bishop. In his surprise at some of the Episcopal statements he could not resist the temptation if he was converted. This was most dreadful. Such a severe reprimand came from headquarters that he gave up his commission, and several other officers did the same. These men have been preaching and working for God ever since.
Lord Cecil left the army when about 25 years of age. He has been in Canada many times. His first work was as an evangelist in the Ottawa valley and in several of the southern States of the American Union. He came to Canada on his last visit about four years ago, and conducted services in Halifax, Toronto, E. B. Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto. He spent three or four months of winter in this city. His meetings were held in the hall at the corner of Alexander and Yonge streets. Although frequently called on the "Plymouth Brethren" he never owned that name nor in any other way styling himself "Christian." As an evangelist he was very earnest, preaching such doctrines as the second coming of the Lord and that a believer is forever saved. It is asserted by his friends here that he was never married. Among his friends here were the Rev. Mr. Robinson, Postmaster Leslie and Mr. John A. Willis. In person Lord Cecil was tall and spare, and apparently not in the best of health. Although descended from a noble family, the grandeur of whose establishment is described by the Rev. Mr. Haslam in the book above mentioned, Lord Cecil gave no indication of his high birth either in appearance, conversation or dress, and he seemed rather to court the acquaintance of persons in a lower walk of life than those of his own class.

HIS CHARACTER.
Lord Cecil was of the most gentle and lovable disposition. He was retiring and most unpretending. He was devoted to God and his work. He was remarkably gifted. His knowledge of the Scriptures was something wonderful. He was eloquent yet simple. His language was grand and lofty, and his bearing most gentle and winning.
HIS ANCESTRY.
He was not given to telling of his family history. His ancestry was ever kept in the background.
KINGSTON, June 14.—Lord Cecil's body was recovered yesterday afternoon, and is being taken to Napanee to be embalmed. The deceased was 48 years of age. He intended returning to England this fall on a visit to his relatives.

STILL THEY COME.
A CREDIT TO THE PUBLISHERS.
The Goderich Signal-Star, illustrated, is a credit to the publishers, and an advertisement of the town in which it is published, it is one of the most effective of modern ideas. The edition is the joint publication of the two papers of the town and, to secure its production, the rival publishers shook hands under the bloody chain of party politics. Goderich should experience quite a boom as the result of this piece of creditable enterprise.—Strathroy Age.
HIGHLY CREDITABLE TO GODERICH.
The Goderich newspapers, the SIGNAL and the Star, have jointly issued a handsome number called the Goderich Illustrated Signal-Star. The number contains a description of Goderich, its business and attractions, written in an interesting manner. The work is admirably calculated to attract attention to the town, and will probably be found to be a paying advertisement. The number is highly creditable to Goderich and to the publishers.—Hamilton Spectator.
ITS PUBLISHERS ARE HUSTLERS.
"The Goderich Illustrated Signal-Star" is the title of a handsome twenty-eight page paper issued by the two newspapers of Goderich under the auspices of the Board of Trade of the town. It presents a handsome typographical appearance, decidedly creditable to the printer, and the genial style of its get-up, profusely illustrated as it is, shows that its publishers are hustlers, and are going to make Goderich boom, if printers ink and energy will do it.—St. Thomas Journal.

AN EFFORT TO BE PROUD OF.
The Goderich Illustrated Signal-Star Board of Trade edition is an effort that these offices may well be proud of. It is handsomely illustrated and furnishes a fund of information about the rise and progress of the town of Goderich. Its many attractions for summer tourists are prominently noted and altogether it is an edition exceedingly creditable to the SIGNAL and Star offices.—Bruce Telescope.
A FINE NUMBER.
The Goderich Board of Trade in order to advertise the town backed up the two local newspapers in a scheme to publish an illustrated board of trade edition. The result was a handsome 28 page edition of the Goderich Illustrated Signal-Star, which conveys an excellent idea of the town and its advantages. The edition is profusely illustrated with engravings of local buildings and is very complementary to the newspapers jointly concerned in its publication.—Brantford Expositor.
RESULT OF ENTERPRISE.
The Goderich Illustrated Signal-Star has just reached our table and a very creditable sheet it is. It is a very nicely printed and well illustrated and contains 28 pages. Goderich is to be congratulated on the spirit of enterprise which has been displayed in its midst.—Bowmanville Statesman.

WELL DONE, GODERICH.
The town council of Goderich contributed a sum of money towards the publication of a special illustrated edition of the Signal-Star, the names of the two newspapers published in that town. The newspaper men united to carry out the work, and the result of their labors is highly creditable to them. The numerous attractions of the thriving town are set forth by excellent engravings, while the descriptive and commercial standing of the business is well written up, and will add greatly to the prosperity of the corporation.—Kincardine Reporter.
Lissa Nickelson, about 14 years of age, was taken away very suddenly on Monday night, the 3rd inst. He had been living with his uncle John, of Bluevale, on the boundary, since his father and mother died some years ago. Last week he complained of a sore toe; it got worse and blood poisoning set in, and he died on Monday night. He was a very clever and promising lad.
The new Bluevale cheese factory was completed last week and the cheese-maker got to work on Monday, 3rd inst. The building is one of the best in the Dominion. The make-room is 28x64 feet; the press-room 20x50 feet; the curing room, 30x54 feet. The structure is brick and finished with the latest improvements. The total cost is about $4,000. Bluevale factory is well managed and one of the most successful in the county.

Rev. I. B. Wallwin, who has been appointed to Bluevale circuit, was in town last week.
Masters Sam and George McIntyre, of Salford, left last Tuesday for Vancouver, B.C., where they have secured situations.
Bishop Walsh, of London, arrived in town last week, en route to Ashfield, where a confirmation class of over sixty awaited him.
Next Tuesday, June 25th, there will be a farmer's excursion to the Agricultural College, Guelph. Tickets for the round trip only $1.10.
Geo. W. Thomson has been appointed agent for the Wanzel Cooker. A free exhibition and dinner, of which due notice will be given. Ladies especially invited to examine and judge for themselves.
The Kintail Caledonian Society will hold their annual games and sports on Dominion Day. A good program has been provided and a big day's sport is looked for. For particulars see large posters.
About a year ago a horse and buggy were stolen from J. A. Reid, our local livery stable keeper. Recently he succeeded in recovering the horse in the neighborhood of Brantford, but the buggy and the thief are still under cover.
Flower Sunday was celebrated in Knox church Sabbath last by a special sermon to the young by Rev. J. A. Anderson, which was attentively listened to and apparently appreciated. The children occupied the seats in the body of the church and each had a button-hole bouquet for decoration.
"The Roaring Foece at Goderich" is the title of Grip's main cartoon last week. It represents Sir John, Grand Master Wallace and ex Grand Sovereign Bowell as negro minstrels. Wallace is armed with the regulation "slap-stick," which he is earnestly belaboring Sir John on the most prominent portion of his anatomy, which has been carefully padded for the occasion. Bowell stands in a fright in the background and exclaims: "Careful, Wallace, don't hit him hard, to which Sir John replies: 'It makes an awful racket, but I can't feel it.' The picture just about accurately represents the purport of the Grand Lodge resolutions.—Advertiser.

LEGAL.—An action, arising out of the Racey estate, was tried at the County Court sittings, on Tuesday, before Judge Tomlin, December last. Mr. A. Knox joined in a note for $190, for the accommodation of Mr. Racey, and the same was discounted by Mr. Racey, at the bank. At the same time, or afterwards, Mr. Racey sold Mr. Knox his mare and phaeton for $190. Mr. Knox claims that the note was the consideration for the horse and phaeton, whilst the creditors allege that the whole transaction was simply a scheme to secure Mr. Knox, at the expense of the creditors. The action was brought to secure the articles named. Judgment was reserved; Manning & Scott for the estate, and Campion for defendant.

PICNIC ON DOMINION DAY.—A month's picnic will be held by St. Peter's Catholic church, on July 1st, at Beachley's Falls, 4 miles from Goderich, in a beautiful grove on the banks of the Mattland, containing fifteen acres. On the grounds will be refreshment booths, a large table for meals, ice cream, forty strings, athletic sports, the celebrated Ray Polo dance, calisthenics and much by forty little children, a grand stand where a first-class quadrille and string band will furnish the desired music for both the young and the old, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. From Goderich a free ride to the grounds and return will be given to all those attending the picnic. The bills will contain the nature of the games to be provided. A welcome is extended to all. Admission 25c.
HYMNICAL.—The Lacrosse, Wis., Republican has the following reference to a popular singer at Goderich Caledonian concerts, the occasion being his entering into matrimonial bonds:—A very pleasant wedding took place at the spacious residence of F. E. X. DeLorena, 513 South Fifth Street, at eight o'clock last evening, the contracting parties being Miss Rachel Hodge, of Edinburgh, Scotland, and Mr. Gavin Spence, a popular traveling salesman for a large wholesale grocery firm and well known in musical circles throughout the Northwest. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Faville, Pastor of the First Congregational Church. Mr. E. A. Krogh was the groom's best man, and Miss Barbara Spence, sister of the groom, the bride's best lady. There were about twenty-five invited guests present, including the Congregational Church Choir, of which Mr. Spence is the tenor. The wedding presents were numerous and valuable. Refreshments were served at ten o'clock and the evening spent in music and social conversation. At a late hour the guests departed for their homes pronouncing this as one of the pleasantest weddings they had ever witnessed. The Republican and Leader joins heartily in wishing the young couple a happy and prosperous journey through life.

The people of the western part of Turnberry township were pained to hear of the death, in Wingham, on Wednesday last week, of their old friend and neighbor, Mrs. Joseph Walton. She was a young woman, being only 33 years of age, beloved and esteemed by all who knew her. She leaves a husband and four small children.

LORD CECIL'S FATE.
Converted With Drawn Sword.
Some Incidents in the Life of the Late Lord Adelbert Percy Cecil, as Related by the Rev. W. Haslam.

From the Toronto Telegram.
It has often been remarked that when a man is under spiritual influence they manifest greater earnestness and force of conviction than men in other walks of life. Lord Adelbert Percy Cecil was not an exception to this observation.
Lord Cecil, late lieutenant 1st Rifle Brigade, was one of the younger sons of the Marquis of Exeter, and was born July 18, 1841. He is descended from William Cecil, Secretary of State under Edward VI, and Elizabeth, and elevated to the peerage under the title of Baron Burghley, Feb. 25, 1571. The marriage dates from Feb. 4, 1861. His family seat is Burghley, near Stamford, Northamptonshire; the town house is 35 Grosvenor Square, London.
Under the heading "The Young Nobleman," his conversion is thus described by the Rev. W. Haslam, formerly incumbent of Curzon Chapel, Ipswich, London, in his book "Yet Not L." Mr. Haslam several years ago conducted a series of revival meetings in Toronto.
"In 1865, one evening after I had been preaching in the Town Hall at Hythe, a young gentleman came up to me and said: 'I have been thinking of you several years.' He told me that one day while he was with his regiment in Canada, he was marching along with a drawn sword in his hand, and the band was playing a quick, lively tune, when he felt that he had reached the end of his journey, and that his sins were pardoned. He made him exceedingly happy, and he went along with a light, buoyant step, scarcely conscious of anything but his joy. One afternoon I was invited by Lord A. to his room in the officers' quarters to give an address. There were present four officers of all grades, from a colonel down to an ensign. They were free and friendly enough with me till after the prayer for a blessing on our gathering. Then, as if they were afraid some action would take place, the majority of them went away behind me, 'out of range,' as they called it, and sat upon a colonel's bed at the other end of the room. One evening after my address I called on some one to pray. In an instant Lord A. broke out in prayer as if he could not restrain himself. The adjutant was present. Lord A. called to the colonel and placed under arrest. The regiment with the obnoxious officer was shortly afterwards ordered to Canada. Then my lord had more liberty and used it freely till he came into collision with a bishop. In his surprise at some of the Episcopal statements he could not resist the temptation if he was converted. This was most dreadful. Such a severe reprimand came from headquarters that he gave up his commission, and several other officers did the same. These men have been preaching and working for God ever since.
Lord Cecil left the army when about 25 years of age. He has been in Canada many times. His first work was as an evangelist in the Ottawa valley and in several of the southern States of the American Union. He came to Canada on his last visit about four years ago, and conducted services in Halifax, Toronto, E. B. Montreal, Ottawa and Toronto. He spent three or four months of winter in this city. His meetings were held in the hall at the corner of Alexander and Yonge streets. Although frequently called on the "Plymouth Brethren" he never owned that name nor in any other way styling himself "Christian." As an evangelist he was very earnest, preaching such doctrines as the second coming of the Lord and that a believer is forever saved. It is asserted by his friends here that he was never married. Among his friends here were the Rev. Mr. Robinson, Postmaster Leslie and Mr. John A. Willis. In person Lord Cecil was tall and spare, and apparently not in the best of health. Although descended from a noble family, the grandeur of whose establishment is described by the Rev. Mr. Haslam in the book above mentioned, Lord Cecil gave no indication of his high birth either in appearance, conversation or dress, and he seemed rather to court the acquaintance of persons in a lower walk of life than those of his own class.

HIS CHARACTER.
Lord Cecil was of the most gentle and lovable disposition. He was retiring and most unpretending. He was devoted to God and his work. He was remarkably gifted. His knowledge of the Scriptures was something wonderful. He was eloquent yet simple. His language was grand and lofty, and his bearing most gentle and winning.
HIS ANCESTRY.
He was not given to telling of his family history. His ancestry was ever kept in the background.
KINGSTON, June 14.—Lord Cecil's body was recovered yesterday afternoon, and is being taken to Napanee to be embalmed. The deceased was 48 years of age. He intended returning to England this fall on a visit to his relatives.

STILL THEY COME.
A CREDIT TO THE PUBLISHERS.
The Goderich Signal-Star, illustrated, is a credit to the publishers, and an advertisement of the town in which it is published, it is one of the most effective of modern ideas. The edition is the joint publication of the two papers of the town and, to secure its production, the rival publishers shook hands under the bloody chain of party politics. Goderich should experience quite a boom as the result of this piece of creditable enterprise.—Strathroy Age.
HIGHLY CREDITABLE TO GODERICH.
The Goderich newspapers, the SIGNAL and the Star, have jointly issued a handsome number called the Goderich Illustrated Signal-Star. The number contains a description of Goderich, its business and attractions, written in an interesting manner. The work is admirably calculated to attract attention to the town, and will probably be found to be a paying advertisement. The number is highly creditable to Goderich and to the publishers.—Hamilton Spectator.
ITS PUBLISHERS ARE HUSTLERS.
"The Goderich Illustrated Signal-Star" is the title of a handsome twenty-eight page paper issued by the two newspapers of Goderich under the auspices of the Board of Trade of the town. It presents a handsome typographical appearance, decidedly creditable to the printer, and the genial style of its get-up, profusely illustrated as it is, shows that its publishers are hustlers, and are going to make Goderich boom, if printers ink and energy will do it.—St. Thomas Journal.

AN EFFORT TO BE PROUD OF.
The Goderich Illustrated Signal-Star Board of Trade edition is an effort that these offices may well be proud of. It is handsomely illustrated and furnishes a fund of information about the rise and progress of the town of Goderich. Its many attractions for summer tourists are prominently noted and altogether it is an edition exceedingly creditable to the SIGNAL and Star offices.—Bruce Telescope.
A FINE NUMBER.
The Goderich Board of Trade in order to advertise the town backed up the two local newspapers in a scheme to publish an illustrated board of trade edition. The result was a handsome 28 page edition of the Goderich Illustrated Signal-Star, which conveys an excellent idea of the town and its advantages. The edition is profusely illustrated with engravings of local buildings and is very complementary to the newspapers jointly concerned in its publication.—Brantford Expositor.
RESULT OF ENTERPRISE.
The Goderich Illustrated Signal-Star has just reached our table and a very creditable sheet it is. It is a very nicely printed and well illustrated and contains 28 pages. Goderich is to be congratulated on the spirit of enterprise which has been displayed in its midst.—Bowmanville Statesman.

WELL DONE, GODERICH.
The town council of Goderich contributed a sum of money towards the publication of a special illustrated edition of the Signal-Star, the names of the two newspapers published in that town. The newspaper men united to carry out the work, and the result of their labors is highly creditable to them. The numerous attractions of the thriving town are set forth by excellent engravings, while the descriptive and commercial standing of the business is well written up, and will add greatly to the prosperity of the corporation.—Kincardine Reporter.
Lissa Nickelson, about 14 years of age, was taken away very suddenly on Monday night, the 3rd inst. He had been living with his uncle John, of Bluevale, on the boundary, since his father and mother died some years ago. Last week he complained of a sore toe; it got worse and blood poisoning set in, and he died on Monday night. He was a very clever and promising lad.
The new Bluevale cheese factory was completed last week and the cheese-maker
