FILE UP GARROW'S MAJORITY.

Up to the present the opposition to Mr. Garrow's candidature bears every evidence of being a "bluff," by the opposition, and it would almost seem that the nomination of a candidate by the Smith's Hill convention was intended more to fill up what would otherwise be a blank space in the Empire's list of candidates in constituencies than for any other purpose.

Nevertheless, it will not do to be lulled into inactivity by the apparent inaction of our opponents. What is wanted is election is to roll up a majority in West Huron that will put the constituency hereafter beyond a peradventure when a call to the polls is made.

We have as our standard-bearer a man in whose integrity and honor all can safely abide; a man who can be relied upon by all parties to do what is honest and correct; and a man not hidebound by partisan politics. We have a man who has been tried in public place and position and who has not been found wanting; one who has occupied the highest trust in the county outside of Parliamentary honors—the Warden's chair—with credit to himself and benefit to Huron; a man who today stands second to few in Ontario in breadth of intelligence, integrity of purpose, and ability to place his views on record.

With such a man for a candidate, and with a party platform that appeals not to bigotry and intolerance, but to a presentation of the claims of the best government in the world, there should be little doubt of a majority for Reform in West Huron that would in the future deter all opposition in West Huron.

File up the majority for GARROW on the 5th of June.

NONE who value the principles of Equal Rights will lend themselves to any sinister method, or permit the Association to become an instrument in the hands of designing men for the advancement of party. Should anything of this kind be attempted in any place every true member of the Association will regard it as base and immoral, and as fitted to do irreparable damage to a most necessary movement. To all men of any party who have shown no interest in our organization till they imagine that it might be used for personal or party ends, conscientious and intelligent friends of Equal Rights will give a wide berth.—Rev. Dr. Caven.

Mr. H. E. CLARKE, of Toronto, MERE-ETH'S "prospective" Finance Minister, said in his Lindsay address, "We don't want a single Catholic vote this election. And yet he howls about Equal Rights for all."

CRIES THAT MEAN SOMETHING

Even the Tory papers have come to the conclusion that the phrase "Mowat Must Go," is only a hoodoo so far as their party is concerned. The intelligent electorate evidently "heed not the voice of the charmer, charm he never so wisely," but look to sober facts and solid acts rather than effete catchwords, and abortive attempts to kindle the fire of intolerance with the flames of bigotry. Some of the Tory press, notably the Empire, World and Hamilton Spectator are manufacturing new phrases, as follows:

The Empire says:—"The Grits are on the run."

The World breathes out:—"His hour has come."

The Spectator shrieks:—"His day of reckoning is here."

The Signal endorses each and every battle yell of its esteemed Tory contemporaries. The Grits are on the run, is a true bill, and has been true since 1871. They have kept moving at a lively gait in front of the procession ever since that date, and after the 5th of June it will be found they are still no laggards, but have distanced their old-fogy Tory competitors by a large majority. Verily, the Grits are on the run.

His hour has come. This little pleasantry is supposed to refer to Hon. OLIVER MOWAT, and is believed to have been invented by a young and ambitious newspaperman named W. F. MACLEAN, of Toronto. For being the alleged father of this "whooop-up" the brilliant young journalist has been given an opportunity to pose as a parliamentary candidate in the Tory interest in the county of Wentworth from now until the 5th of June.

After that date the legend "His hour has come" will be in bold relief upon young MACLEAN's political tombstone, and he will once more be obscure and unknown behind the impersonality of the World's editorial columns. As for Mowat, his hour came before the World's young man was born, for he was a man amongst men years before the advent of that brilliant jewel of journalism and high-souled embodiment of editorial integrity and consistency. MOWAT's hour came when he was elevated to the Bench of his Province, which he adorned for years. His hour came when, at the call of his Province, he laid aside the ermine of the judicial appointment and grasped with a steady hand and clear brain the helm of the Provincial ship. His hour came when, at the expiration of the first parliament, he was called upon in 1875 to render an account of his stewardship, and received the endorsement, "Well done, good and faithful servant."

His hour again came in 1879, and again was his course endorsed. In 1883 his hour came once more, and although on that occasion WILLIAM RALPH MEREDITH endeavored to make capital out of the "Facts for the Irish Electors," Ontario remained loyal to her most patriotic son. His hour came in 1886 when MEREDITH, chagrined at the failure of his attempt of '83, changed front in the matter of religious intolerance and vainly put on boots and spurs to ride the Protestant horse. The intelligent, broad-minded electorate would have none of it, and again was MOWAT endorsed. His hour of victory awaits him on the 5th of June. The appeal to bigotry and religious intolerance will once more fail of effect, and it will be demonstrated to the Tory press and politicians that empty catchwords avail not against honest worth, integrity and ability.

In the language of the Spectator, "The day of reckoning is here," and Mowat, the man of clean character and unswerving political reputation, will again be endorsed by a grateful Province and a devoted people.

Let us have a few more apt quotations from our esteemed Tory contemporaries.

J. GABRIEL HOLMES, a fresh young lawyer of Toronto, is making a triumphal march through South Huron, if we are to believe the telegraphic reports to the Tory press. But we don't believe the reports published, and opine that the florid, highly-elevated, full-blooded, richly-rounded sentences descriptive of the "conquering hero's" visit to the Sunny South of this county are selections from the candidate's campaign address. GABRIEL is evidently "blowing his horn," so that the credulous folk in Toronto may be led to believe that he has the faintest chance of capturing South Huron. If South Huron could be wrested from the Reformers men like HARRY EILMER and DE ROLLINS would not stand aside and see the chaplet of victory put upon the brow of a comparatively unknown young Toronto lawyer. When the good old Bishop of South Huron lays hands on this political neophyte he will disabuse him of the idea that any Tory—legal fledgling or otherwise—has a soft snap in that solid Reform constituency.

SCHOOL QUESTION IN BRIEF.

A great deal is stated at the present time by interested parties on the matter of the school question in Ontario, and an effort is being made to disguise the real bearing of the case by a mass of useless verbiage. To simplify the matter and reduce the question to the comprehension of even the most obtuse we give the following summary, which contains the essence of the case:

1. Minister of Education Ross, of his own motion, five years ago took steps to secure the teaching of English in all the schools of the province, and his arrangements to secure this end have worked very satisfactorily. It cannot be long before every child in Ontario who goes to school at all will be able to read in English.

2. There is no question between the Reform and Tory parties regarding the abolition of the separate schools. That cannot be effected without an act of the Imperial Parliament, and that act can only be obtained (if at all) at the solicitation of the Dominion Parliament. Mr Meredith has admitted this.

3. The law of Ontario makes every ratepayer, Protestant and Catholic, a supporter of the public schools, until the ratepayer gives written notice to the municipal clerk that he desires to be exempted from public school taxes and assessed for separate school taxes. The assessor has to be guided by the list kept in the clerk's office of those who have given notice, and the assessment paper has to show each ratepayer whether he is put down for the public or the separate schools. All the Tory talk about making Catholics support separate schools against their will is so much bosh. The law, as we have stated it above with regard to the necessity of notice, is now and has always been the law.

A JUDGE'S WISE WORDS.

There is a lesson for us all in the words of Mr Justice Ross, in delivering judgment at Lindsay the other day, in the case of Cooper v. Hughes. The Judge said:

"Let me say a word about this constant attack upon the Roman Catholic Church. Some of you may have strong Protestant feeling, but is there a man who dare say that the Church to which he happens to belong contains all the truth and nothing of error? Is there any one denomination of Christians that today has all the truth, or affirms as truth all that their fathers and forefathers affirmed as truths? Does not the advancement and enlightenment which comes from years of study of God's Word and religious teachings show that many of us have yet many things to learn and that we are only on the ocean shore picking up the pebbles and beyond us lies the large sea of truth? And can any one of us say that all is error outside of us? Let us be tolerant, each of the other's opinions, because, if we believe as we have yet many things to learn and that we are only on the ocean shore picking up the pebbles and beyond us lies the large sea of truth? And can any one of us say that all is error outside of us? Let us be tolerant, each of the other's opinions, because, if we believe as we have yet many things to learn and that we are only on the ocean shore picking up the pebbles and beyond us lies the large sea of truth?
