Legislative Council.

May 14th.
The House met at 4:30 and went into Committee on the Bill entitled "An Act Respecting the Department of Public Works." The Bill passed the second reading with the amendment that the words "Deputy Minister of Public Works" be substituted for Secretary.

"An Act Respecting the Department of Posts and Telegraphs" passed the committee stage with the addition of "Newfoundland Disaster Fund" and the "Newfoundland Patriotic Association" to Section 7, Sub-Section 1.

The Bill entitled "An Act to provide for the Standardization of Codfish" did not receive much criticism, except Sub-Section 2, Section 3, which says branding of fish. Section 4 which gives 30 days notice from the date of proclamation was thought could be taken advantage of. Hon. Sir P. T. McGrath thought that the provisions in Section 6 may be carried too far. A lot of discussion was held on a Bill entitled "An Act to provide for the better obtaining of information respecting the Codfishery." In Section 3 not less than $10 fine was stricken out and now reads, "to a penalty of not more than $100, etc." Section 4 was allowed to stand over, the verbiage being objectionable. To Section 6 the Hon. Mr. Grieve raised strong objections, saying "Why should we give to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries the details of our holdings, he being engaged in the same business, and the knowledge obtained would be greatly to the advantage of his trade. This clause (No. 6) is most objectionable. To state the total quantity held would not be so bad, but to make us give the details, why it is un-British."

Hon. Mr. Gibbs here offered some explanation, but admitted that the Section had objections.

Hon. Mr. Grieve, continuing, said, "If you wish to restore the confidence of the trade, this Section should be left out. Arbitrary rules will destroy all confidence. Six weeks ago I applied to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries for a permit to sell a cargo of fish, the permit was verbally given, subject to the Advisory Board's permission. The members of that Board in the same business as myself, refused the permit, consequently I was put to the loss of $30,000. I am now dropping out of the fishery business. The trade of the Colony will be destroyed by these arbitrary measures. I call this clause a most pernicious one."

Hon. Sir P. T. McGrath asked why the permit was not granted.

Hon. Mr. Grieve replied, "The fish was not sold here, it was sent on consignment."

Hon. R. K. Bishop, speaking on the Section, said: "It is an extraordinary proceeding, that every exporter must describe his stocks so, to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries. What is the value of the information to the Minister if he cannot give it to the Advisory Board?"

Sir P. T. McGrath, on Section 7 said, "This will stifle all newspaper discussion, because for any inaccuracy people would be open to prosecution."

The matter of fines or imprisonment was discussed by Hon. Mr. Milley, who pointed out that in one Section the fine was $1,000 or three months' imprisonment, and in the other section the fine is $100 or three months.

A Bill entitled "An Act to Incorporate the Women's Patriotic Trust Fund and for other purposes" was further discussed, the House then adjourning until Monday.

SUGAR PRICE JOBBERY.

Among the various places to put the responsibility for the rising prices of sugar, one is on the "system." In New Orleans it is charged, by the United States authorities who have arrested several dealers, that some of them have been "pyramiding" prices and profits by selling one to another. It is also said that a sugar cargo en route from Cuba may be sold several times before it reaches the United States, and that each time some one, who sits in an office and is a part of the "system," carefully pockets a "profit." The Federal Trade Board's finding that there are too many profits between the farmer and the consumer appears to apply here.

as well. It appears to be a case of "What is to be done about it?"

DE VALERA.

It is not necessary to be a partisan, one way or another, in order to endorse most fully the purpose of the great meeting held recently in Birmingham, Alabama, to protest against the activity of Mr. de Valera in the United States. Said Judge Horace Wilkinson, the chief speaker at the meeting: "De Valera, so-called president of the 'Irish Republic,' is a traitor to the United States. He is a traitor of the blackest kind to every cause that the Allies fought four years to defend. England has not crushed Ireland under an iron heel. Our great ally has, on the contrary, given the Irish every chance to better themselves." The language, it is true, is emphatic, but there are certainly occasions which warrant emphasis.

GLASGOW'S TRIUMPH.

Glasgow may well be proud of its tramway service. Not only has it refunded the capital expended on it, but it has now no interest to pay and no sinking fund to meet. In addition it has paid over to the Corporation the sum of £1,000,000. The explanation of this highly satisfactory state of affairs is given by the general manager of the tramway department of the Corporation. "This result has been achieved," he says, "chiefly by giving a regular and frequent service of cars, which are made as clean and attractive as possible, at the lowest possible fares." Residents in towns, who are dissatisfied with the local tramway service and high fares, might think it worth their while to draw the attention of their local tramway manager to the reasons why the Glasgow trams pay.

AUSTRALIAN LABOR LOSS.

That is a significant item in the Australian news which records the loss by that country, within twelve months, of £4,000,000, as the result of direct action by Labor. The loss, too, in the main is Labor's loss. The striker often, to use a homely metaphor, cuts off his nose to spite his face. He throws down his tools and enters on the political strike only to find perhaps, that victory is worse than defeat. In the famous squabble over "Ginx's Baby," it will be remembered, the Detectors Association discovered that it had squandered in public meetings, salaries, and tracts all the funds raised for G. B.'s support by benevolent zealots. The parallel is obvious. No wonder that Labor is getting tired of its familiar tactics and showing a disposition to strike, according to a Canadian leader, not for higher pay but to reduce the high cost of living, which it now sees is the direct outcome of a successful strike. The logic of the new step is irresistible. It will not bring a new world into being for Labor, but it will save something from the wreck, and, after all, Labor by such action can bring us all nearer than before to the realization of that league of mankind which will recognize only common interests and aims.

Mainly About People.

Alice Joyce was born at Kansas City in 1890. She was a telephone operator before she joined the Kalem Company ten years ago, and was one of the first film stars. She has been with the Vitagraph Company since May 15th, 1918.

Herbert Hoover was born in Iowa, passed his boyhood with an uncle in Oregon and his wedded life in California. He was as a boy industrious and of a studious disposition. He worked hard to get through college to relieve his uncle, who had taken him as an orphan.

In a New York kitchenette resides Mme. Mary Kalina, the wife of Ivan Kalina, a celebrated Russian general, once mistress of a handsome home in Petrograd. Her 3-year-old son, Cyril, is with her. She hasn't heard from her husband for two years. Canadian officers, whose laundress she was, helped her out of Russia. The Bolsheviks have her home in Petrograd.

The royal command that in future the Royal Welsh Fusiliers will be officially known as the Royal Welsh Fusiliers ends a pretty little quarrel between the War Office and the famous regiment with the "dash." For many years the "c" in its name has been adopted by the regiment, and appears on their badge, but the spelling has never been recognized at Whitehall, and "Welsh" has been the authorized word in the Army list. The only justification for "Welsh" is to be found in an early document relating to the regiment, drawn up in the days when spelling was an affair for which rather than an exact science.

The richest woman on earth is Mrs. Youe Cuzuki, and it is estimated that she made over thirty million pounds during the war. Possessing a fleet of sixty vessels, this middle-aged Japanese woman trades with all the markets of the world, and has offices and agents in every capital. She began her business career twenty years ago, when her husband died and left her a sugar refinery, which she sold for 650,000 pounds. With this money she interested herself in shipping and manufacture, steadily building up a fleet and acquiring factories until she became interested in practically every industry in the East. To-day she is the richest woman in the Orient and probably in the world.

Straight From the Shoulder.

LONDON, Ont., May 10.—Declaring that the moral uplifters of Ontario are horrified if a man takes another drink, but satisfied if he takes another life, Bishop Fallon, of the Roman Catholic Diocese of London, last night vigorously attacked the impending enactment of legislation for easier divorce.

"I would rather have a thousand runkards than one divorced man," said His Lordship. "The uplifters tell you, you will go to Hell if you buy a newspaper on Sunday, but you may have Mrs. X on Monday and a different Mrs. X on Tuesday."

"What is the taking of a drink, or the smoking of a cigarette, or attending a horse race to the breaking up of a Christian home?"

"The people," he said, "now have the spectacle of divorce law being enacted for Ontario; which have not been asked for by them, and of divorce courts being inflicted on Prince Edward Island, where the people have expressed themselves against the change."

GETTING HOME.

When you have wandered far away and left the old-familiar scenes To live for days and nights afar from all that friendship really means, Though skies are blue and men are kind and joy is yours from day to day, How good it is when comes the hour which starts you on your homeward way.

Oh, there is beauty in the hills and music in the roaring sea! The pine and palm are fair to know; but fairer is the apple tree! A stranger's smile is good to see, but wander wheresoe'er you may, The richest joys of earth are found always along the homeward way. There comes the time when scenes afar will lose their luster and their thrill; You'll want the old-familiar street, the sitting room, where all is still, The faces of the friends you love, the children romping at their play, And you will hail with joy the time which starts you on your homeward way.

It matters not how fair the place to which in search of peace you roam, There is no thrill which can compare to that you find in getting home. To be once more with those you know! On that the joys of earth depend, And sweet the thrill and glad the day which brings you to your journey end.
