

"I'll send her a rich fruit cake"

is a new thought in the giving of presents for birthdays. When that rich fruit cake is fully three-quarters imported fruits, nuts, and citrus peels, and will keep until eaten, it is a joy to receive it as well as a pleasure to give it. Mother Drake's Fruit Cake bears a loving message in every slice and crumb.

Scouting Notes

With the passing of the festive season, troops are settling down to good hard work again. May 1924 saw the movement extend and the value of Scouting became more widely recognized. When Sir Robert Baden-Powell was in Canada last year, he attended a pressing invitation to Scouts for the Jamboree to be held in England during August next. This invitation was also extended to Newfoundland, and the Chief Scout had several communications from H. Q. with reference to the matter. The question was given full consideration by the Chief Scout and the Executive Committee, who thought it undesirable that any interruption of training should take place during the most active and important season of the year. This is in accord with the view taken by the Canadian General Council, and we understand His Excellency Lord Byng, Chief Scout for Canada has already wired Sir Robert Baden-Powell to this effect. The latest application for Registry of a Troop comes from St. Anthony where considerable work has already been accomplished by A. E. Blackburn Esq., M.B.E. Mr. Blackburn reports that the country in that part of the Island is admirably suited to Scouting. From recent exchanges we note, Colonel G. R. Pearce, V.C., formerly Scoutmaster of the 14th Calgary, is now resident in Winnipeg where he has formed a new troop. And old Scouts' Club has been formed by old scouts attending Toronto University, who intend to put on a Winter Gillwell Training Course as part of its 1924 programme. The English Universities have also recently taken a keen interest in Scouting, many from Oxford and Cambridge having attended the Gillwell Course last summer. Rovering is growing in popularity among the various colleges of Oxford and Cambridge, Queen's College having two Rover Patrols. Local troops should not lose sight of the value of regular hikes during the winter as well as summer, as during all seasons signalling, compass work, woodcraft, etc., can be carried out.

Burglary at Meadows

Last Thursday night the house of Cornelius Brake, at Meadows, was burglarized and about $64 in notes and coin stolen. Mr. Brake was working at Corner Brook at the time, and Mrs. Brake had gone to a neighbour's house, and the son was also away. Entrance was made by taking out a pane of glass. The money was contained in a wooden box, a small tin safe and a tin can, two of which have since been located but empty. This is the second or third burglary that has taken place at Meadows within the past few months.—Western Star.

A NEW YEAR'S PLEA.

Lord, let me stand to the thick of the fight.
Let me bear what I must without whining.
Grant me the wisdom to do what is right.
Though a thousand false beacons are shining.

Let me be true as the steel of a blade.
Make me bigger than skillful or clever.
Teach me to cling to my best, unafraid.
And harken to false goads, never.

Let me be brave when the burden is great.
Faithful when wounded by sorrow.
Teach me, when troubled, with patience to wait.
The better and brighter to-morrow.

Spare me from hatred and envy and shame.
Open my eyes to life's beauty.
Let not the glitter of fortune or fame
Destroy the fair splendour of duty.

Let me be true to myself to the end.
Let me start to my task without whining.
Let me be right as a man, as a friend.
Though a thousand false beacons are shining.

Britain Comes Back

Great Britain is closing the year 1923 with her foreign trade larger in amount, both as to imports and exports, than for the year 1922. British imports in eleven months of 1923 exceeded imports in the same period of 1922 by $20,000,000 and exports were more than $25,000,000 greater in value.

In two features of this year's foreign trade Great Britain has surpassed not only last year but has gone ahead of pre-war figures. British coal exports during the present year (January-November) have amounted to 73,575,713 tons, or 175,000 tons better than the best previous record which was 73,496,118 tons exported in 12 months, 1913. Tonnage of shipping entering and leaving British ports with cargo was also larger this year than in either 1922 or 1913.

Official British Board of Trade figures received by the Bankers Trust Company, of New York, from its English Information Service give detailed comparisons for 1923 and 1922, as follows:

	1922 (11 mos.)	1923 (11 mos.)
Imports	$2,996,187,478	$3,019,167,775
Exports	$2,755,992,582	$2,811,434,629
Coal exports (thousand tons)	58,243	73,575
Iron and steel exports (thousand tons)	3,060	3,964
Cotton piece goods exports (million sq. yards)	3,820	3,818
Woolen tissue exports (million sq. yards)	110	135
Shipping tonnage: Arriving with cargo (thousand tons)	39,610	46,376
Departing with cargo (thousand tons)	54,631	65,173

The greater value of British imports in 1923 was due largely to foodstuffs which amounted to about $24,000,000 more than in 1922. Raw materials, such as timber, oils, fats, etc., and partly or wholly manufactured goods notably non-ferrous metals, manufactures of iron and steel, and textiles also accounted for the larger value of imports.

The Lure of Riches

VISIONS OF SUDDEN WEALTH IN U.S.A. RUINOUS SPECULATIONS OF BRITISH EX-OFFICERS.

Their eagerness to get rich quick has brought, not fortune, but disaster to a large number of Europeans in America. All these people were induced to part with money, or the real estate made to them by "real estate" agents on this side. Glowing stories of the boom in land values and the fortunes to be made by the simple process of buying and selling have lured victims from every part of Europe. Glib-tongued agents have their offices in every Continental capital, and in some instances these men have had the audacity to "sell" plots of land in the centre of New York to simple-minded peasants. So reckless indeed have some of these "real estate" agents become that in one instance newcomers to America were persuaded that they had acquired the freehold of the famous Woolworth Building, the tallest structure in New York. It is estimated that

$3,000,000 has been obtained by these clumsy misrepresentations within the past year or two. In London the trap has to be other emigrants from incurring similar disaster. "The trouble is that people become so hypnotized by the tales of these 'real estate' agents that they will not listen to our practical advice," declared Colonel Obed Smith, Superintendent of Emigration to Canada, to a "News of the World" representative the other day. "It is no exaggeration to say that they resent what they regard as our interference. They have pictured in their minds a bright future, and a short cut to riches, and prosperity. Tales of the great fortunes made by others in surprisingly short time lead them to hope for similar good luck. It is only when they find out the soundness of our advice that they write and deplore the fact that they did not listen to it. The sad feature of this wretched business is that so many of the victims are ex-officers, splendid fellows who might have done well, had they not been induced to part with their capital to those who have lured them into perfectly hopeless propositions."

Enjoyable time assured those who attend the C.L.A. Dance at Columbus Hall, January 7th. Jan. 25.
