A REQUEST TO MOTORISTS

FOR KIND CONSIDERATION.

It has been brought to the attention of the Newfoundland Motor Association that there are several thousand people in the city who do not own motor cars and who walk to Bowring Park on Sunday and holiday afternoons.

It is a well-known fact that these citizens are deluged with mud in the fine weather and often spattered with mud in wet weather, as however careful a driver may be, it is usually impossible not to raise dust and sometimes it is impossible to prevent splashing when driving through the mud.

The Association has therefore decided to issue a personal request to Motorists generally not to use the Southside Road on Sunday, Holiday and Half Holiday afternoons, thereby affording the many people in the city who do not own cars an opportunity to walk to the Park in some degree of comfort on Sundays and holidays. (This request, of course, does not apply to motorists living on the Southside nor motorists wishing to call at houses on the Southside on these afternoons). This is an appeal to Motorists, not an order nor a demand. A little consideration is all that is asked and the Association believes that Motorists, generally, are considerate.

Issued by the Executive and Road Committee.
THE NEWFOUNDLAND MOTOR ASSOCIATION,
P. E. OUTERBRIDGE, Sec'y-Treas.

In the Realms of Sport

TO-NIGHT'S GAME.

Good Exhibition Promised.
The final football game for the T.C. Cup, takes place on St. George's Field at 6 o'clock this evening between the Saints and Guards. Both teams are presenting their very strongest line-ups, and an interesting clash is promised. In the League series these teams played to a draw. The Guards have only suffered one defeat during the past two years, and will enter the field to-night strongly backed by their supporters. The winning team will become absolute owners of the trophy.

WILL BATTLE TO-NIGHT.

Benny Leonard and Mickey Walker will battle to-night for the Welterweight Championship of the World. The fight will take place at the Polo Grounds, New York.

EARN RIGHT TO BATTLE DEMPSEY.

Harry Wills, the "Brown Panther," who won a decisive decision over Luis Firpo, "Wild Bull of the Pampas," will now be given a chance to meet Jack Dempsey in a fight for the heavyweight title. This is the match that Wills has been looking forward to for the past four years, but the champion has always managed to sidestep him. Wills has only been knocked out once in his long career, and that was by Sam Langford, another colored battler like himself.

36 HOURS' WALK AT EIGHTY.

Eighty years old, Mr. Francis Wood walked from Bath to London and back to see the Wembley Exhibition, and for one stage walked for thirty-six hours continuously.

CHANNEL SWIM FAILS.

Frank Perks, the Birmingham swimmer, failed in his attempt from Dover, having to give up only four miles from Calais owing to cold.

GIRL SWIMS 17 1/4 MILES.

18 Year Old Heroina's Midway Record in 6h. 27m.

A record swim for a woman in the Medway has been accomplished by Miss Flora Wheatley, aged eighteen, of Castle Road, Chatham, who recently made a plucky attempt to rescue a man from drowning off Sun Pier, Chatham.

She swam from Aylford to Gillingham Pier, a distance of seventeen and a quarter miles, in five hours, twenty-seven minutes.

YORKSHIRE CHAMPIONS.

Innings Victory Over Sussex—Kilner's Great Bowling.

Yorkshire made themselves county champions for the third year in succession recently when, at Brighton, they defeated Sussex by an innings and 110 runs.

Fortunately for the northern team the pitch was very slow-day yesterday, and in an hour and fifty minutes Holmes and Oldroyd put on 107 runs for the second wicket. A great change came over the game after the adjournment, the ground then helping bowlers considerably, and seven wickets fell for ninety-four.

Holmes gave a chance forward short leg when twenty-four, but otherwise battled with fine skill.

Sussex, 193 in arrears, again came badly to grief in their second innings. Young, going in first wicket down at eleven and eighth out at seventy-two, batted with much skill for seventy-five minutes, but in an hour and three-quarters the home side were all out for eighty-three.

Kilner and Rhodes were altogether too much for the Sussex batsmen. The former with seven for thirty-seven, made his record for the match twelve for fifty-five. Rhodes had six wickets for thirty.

Middlesex and Surrey were unable to make a start before tea-time in their match, which, however, was now that Yorkshire has won.

	Pos.	Pts.	Ob.	cent.
Yorkshire	16	3	115	88
Middlesex	11	3	100	69
Surrey	9	1	100	67

Kent	12	4	130	81
Gloucester	9	7	115	64

New York, Sept. 10.—Luis Angel Firpo has felt the humiliating sting of the knockout blow but twice in his meteoric career. In his first fight as an amateur he was stretched horizontal down in his native Buenos Aires by a gentleman amateur, Angel Rodriguez, now retired from active ring competition. That was in 1917.

In 1922 in the most hectic ring struggle in modern history, Firpo was stretched for the fatal ten once again, this time the damaging right of Jack Dempsey being the propelling power which lowered the Argentine's centre of gravity.

But prior to his defeat by Dempsey, Firpo was a raging bull in a china shop of alleged heavyweights. Following his defeat in 1917, the big Argentine started a string of victories, first as an amateur and later as a professional, in various parts of South America. He won a score or more of bouts by knockouts against leading South American heavyweights before he made his debut in the United States early in 1922.

Firpo's record since 1922 follows:—

1922—Sailor Mated, K.O., 7 rounds; Joe McCann, K.O., 6 rounds; Jack Herman, K.O., 5 rounds; Jim Tracey (at Buenos Aires), K.O., 4 rounds.

1923—Bill Brennan, K.O., 12 rounds; Jack McAuliffe, 11, K.O., 3 rounds; Jack Herman (at Havana), K.O., 2 rounds; Jim Hubbard (at Mexico City), K.O., 2 rounds; Jess Willard, K.O., 8 rounds; Joe Burke, K.O., 2 rounds; Homer Smith, won decision, 10 rounds; Charley Z. Welnert, K.O., 2 rounds; Joe Downey, won decision, 10 rounds; Jack Dempsey, lost by K.O.

1924—Al Reich (at Buenos Aires), K.O., 1 round; Farmer Lodge (at Buenos Aires), K.O., 5 rounds; Emilio Spalla, K.O., 14 rounds.

1924—Wills won decision, 13 rounds. New York, Sept. 10.—(A.P.)—Harry Wills, the black panther of New Orleans, has assumed the reclining position but once in his long ring career. That was at the hands of Sam Langford back in 1916 when the two negroes fought a historic battle in which Wills was floored for the ten strokes in 19 rounds. Later, however, Wills vindicated this humiliation by stretching Langford to the canvas in two successive bouts in 1918, the first bout ending in the seventh round and the second one in the fifth stanza.

In his long career, which started back in 1911, Wills has lost but five matches, two of them to Sam Langford. Sam McVea beat him to the decision in 1914. In 1917 he lost to Battling Jim Johnson when he broke his arm in the fourth round. Bill Tate won a decision over him by the foul route in 1922.

Wills' long record follows:—
1911—Battling Taylor, K.O., 7 rounds; Nat Dewey, won decision, 10 rounds.

1912—Harry Brown, K.O., 2 rounds; Sam Collier, K.O., 7 rounds; Ben Pedes, K.O., 3 rounds; Kid Brown, K.O., 6 rounds; John Tholmer, K.O., 5 rounds; Jack Graves, won decision, 10 rounds.

1913—Kid Brown, K.O., 2 rounds; Kid Cotton, K.O., 4 rounds; Jim Sullivan, K.O., 1 round; Joe Jeanette, no decision, 10 rounds; Jeff Clark, draw, 10 rounds.
