Present Lease Expires --- 710 Centre Street, Herald Block Must be Empty by September 1 To be in position to handle our rapidly growing business, we found it necessary to lay plans for a larger and more commodious business home. Three floors are being constructed in the new Mason & Risch Block, Eighth Avenue and Fourth Street West, near Glanville's, which has been un der construction for several months past, and the contractors promised to have everything in readiness for occupancy September 1st, but now tell us they must have more time.

Unusual Delays Retard Contractors' Progress

Unavoidable delays in securing specially selected materials for interior finishing, as well as unanticipated changes in building plans, make it impossible for us to take possession of our beautiful new home by Sept. 1st eaves us temporarily homeless.

Think of it! A stock of Pianos such only the world's biggest Pianc louses carry, the cheapest of which will add grace to any home, with its purity and richness of tone-all to go at cut-in-half prices. Slightly used and almost new pianas of such well known makes as Mason & Risch Henry Herbert, Weber, Steinway Wisner, Classic, Harmonic, Stein bach, Wheelock, Evans Bros., Emer son and many others, as well as number of Player Pianos, all bearing the Mason & Risch ample guarantee of superiority, will GO on your own terms, but must go quickly.

Situation Demands Prompt Action -- Sweeping Price Reductions This is the only course open to us.

You Piano buyers, whom we expect to PAY to help us out of this situation, have the right to know why we turn to the method of radical, unparalleled price reduction for relief. Briefly, circumstances have developed which make it impossible for us to get into our new wareroom by Sept. 1. Our present lease expires Sept. 1. We must get out.

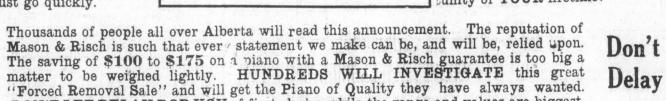

What Are We Going to Do With Our Big Stock of High-Grade Pianos?

We can store them-yet, at heavy expense for cartage and storage, damage, time, tuning and repair. We have weighed the situation thoroughly, and tell you frankly that we have determined to deduct all these expenses from the piano prices and cut off another big slice as an advertise-
