His Majesty Wants Salisbury to Make Another Speech,

Comments of the London Press-The Letter Variously Characterized as "Pathetic," 'Dignified," "Sincere," "Childish," "Undignified," and "The Message of a Cruel, Cowardly, Fanatical Tyrant."

London, Nov. 20 .- An incident unparalleled in the annals of English diplomacy occurred last evening at the conference of the colonial agents in London. This was the reading of a letter from the Sultan of Turkey to Lord trol. delivered on the occasion of the ban-London.

Lord Salisbury referred to the impropriety of reading the letter at the letter as undignified and childish. conference, but he took advantage of the occasion simply to grant, so far as he could, the request made by the Sultan. At the outset of his speech, the Prime Minister said: "Allow me to say a word in answer to a very distinguished distant correspondent, if I may so term him, who has requested me to make a statement in some public speech. My correspondent is no less a personage than the Sultan of Turk-I feel that there is profound impropriety in thrusting any diplomatic details on your attention, and I hope you will believe that nothing would have induced me to produce on this occasion the august message I shall read, except the distinct commands of the person from whom it proceeded."

Lord Salisbury then referred to the speech he delivered at the Guild Hall on the occasion of the banquet given the new Lord Mayor of London on Nov. 9, and added: "His Majesty has been pleased to send me a message to say that he has been very much pained to read the report of Turkish ambassador to Gre that speech, and the expression of the at 3 o'clock this morning. opinion that the promised reforms in Turkey would not be executed. PRESS COMMENTS. The Post: Nobody who considers eastern politics with calm, unbiased judgment will fail to be struck by the pathetic dignity and frank earn-estness of the Sultan's message. The Graphic: In writing these manly words the Sultan has rendered a signal service to himself, his country, and The Telegraph: If words could cure the reign of terror, the Sultan's would be received with deep relief and con-gratulations throughout Europe.

The Times: The Sultan's unique appeal is a remarkable tribute to the in fluence Lord Salisbury wields in Eur-cpe. It may be doubted, however, whe-ther his Majesty will be greatly pleas-

The Standard: There is a pathetic sincerity in the Sultan's combined protest and undertaking that cannot fail to win the respectful sympathy of Englishmen, but if Abdul Hamid had an intelligent grasp of the situation tricts. The Standard With De greatly pleased the night of Saturday last, Nov. 16, which was a most critical day for the Turkish Empire, the Sultan was engage. ed, sitting close to the telegraph in-strument in the Yildiz Kiosk, personally dictating instructions to the different provincial governors to do their utmost to restore order in their discharacter of his advisers, and that he has finally determined to take the reins of government in his own hands. The lack of sufficient funds to equip the reserve called out and the scarcity, of regular troops in the disturbed provinces is a matter of great concern to the Sultan, who is said to be rapidly getting an idea of the extent to which misgovernment has spread, not that this has gone on without his knowledge.

The situation in Southwest Anatolia, where the Christians are revolting in large numbers, is inspiring the most grave anxiety among the representatives of the powers here, and difficult to see how the Turks can be prevented from restoring order there by force.

It is reported that the Sultan is trying to raise funds to mobilize an army of 500,000 men.

THE PORTE'S STORY.

The Turkish legation at Washington received from the Sublime Porte the following telegram, under date of yesterday: "The Armenian insurgents of Zeitoun, Ferned and Kemban, numbering more than 800, attacked the district of Enderin, burned the palace of the governor as well as the houses belonging to the Mussulmans, and cap-tured those of all Mussuman families that were unable to flee. The rioters again fell on the village of Kurtier, at Marash, and burned ten houses Remarkable Sayings and Doings at a Contervative Convention.

WON'T PLEDGE HIMSELF. John A. McGillivray, Q.C., is the Conservative candidate in North Ontario. He refused to say what action he would take on the remedial bill until he saw it. Mr. Foster and Dr. Montague spoke at the Cannington meeting, but were absolutely silent on the school question. Several of the speakers at the convention condemned the remedial order sent to Manitoba as coercive and against the interests of the Dominion, while others asserted that they did not believe that the Government at Ottawa has yet made up Then turning to other matters, Lord satisfied. The King will also pay the cost its mind what to do. Mesrs. Foster agitation of the present preparations for sending an and Montague are credited with the expedition against him.
