THE WALPOLE MURDER.

Considerable Mystery Said to Surround the Crime.

All Implicated Men Belong to the Chipewa Tribe.

ALGONQU, Mich., Jan. 24.—An autopsy was held yesterday afternoon by Drs. Mitchell and Knight, of Wallaceburg, on the dead body of the Indian, Frank Roy, murdered by his companions in a gruesome manner yesterday evening. In removing the scalp a fracture of the skull was discovered extending over the right temple, causing considerable congestion of the cerebral membranes of the right hemisphere. This, together with injuries received by concussion at the base of the skull, were in the opinion of the medical men sufficient to cause death. There was also considerable discoloration of the throat, denoting strangulation by compression of the windpipe. This report will be presented at the inquest to be held in Port Lambton to-day by Coroner Fraser.

There is more mystery surrounding this occurrence than is at first sight apparent. Several other Indians who were inside the store and within five yards of the scene of the crime profess to have heard nothing denoting that anything of an unusual occurrence was taking place outside. The men arrested have made a statement to the effect that when last seen by them the murdered man was sitting near the store in the store where they left him. A house on fire during the post-mortem, hidden away in an unlighted stove, and a general feeling prevails that more light should be shed on the matter. The case was complicated by the fact that the men arrested had on soft rubber boots, men arrested had on soft rubber boots, men arrested had on soft rubber boots.

The men arrested all belong to the Chipewa tribe, of which there are 680 on the island. This is the second murder happened on the island, the other being the murder of the stepladder of the two men present under arrest, which occurred eight years ago and for which no one was convicted. With the apparent immovable stolidity characteristic of their race the accused men seem to little realize the enormity of the offense for which they stand arrested.

FIFTEEN PRISONERS ESCAPE. One of Them Was to be Hanged Next Friday for Murder.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Jan. 24.—Fifteen prisoners in the Green county jail have overpowered the guard and secured their liberty. Among them was Peter Renfrew, sentenced to be hanged next Friday for the murder of a constable two years ago.

Jaeger Ward, the only guard on duty, opened the door to the corridor to pass in a bucket. William Taylor told him with a blow of his fist. Another prisoner slipped the great bar that opened the doors to the cells, and the prisoners all rushed upon the help.

While several held him, Renfrew tore away the telephone from the wall of the jail office, broke open a box that held two revolvers, and secured a box of cartridges. Twenty-five officers on foot and horseback started in pursuit, all armed with Winchester. Renfrew will sell his life for his liberty.

Wreck on the Pennsylvania Road. NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 24.—It is reported a passenger train on the Pennsylvania Railroad was wrecked this morning near New Brunswick, and that the express messenger was killed.

Toronto Young Liberals. TORONTO, Jan. 23.—The Young Liberals to-night concluded their debate on "Annexation vs. Independence." About 75 members were present, and about 50 voted for the resolution declaring for independence in preference to annexation.

Railway Wreck at Rutland. TROY, N. Y., Jan. 23.—The Montreal train due in this city at 4:30 p.m. was wrecked at Rutland by a broken frog. Three cars were derailed. K. H. Cobb, a Boston cigar drummer, was instantly killed; Conductor Clark, Engineer Stickney, Fireman Willis and Trainman Perry and Harrington were severely injured. Two Thousand Conversions in One Day.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 23.—Nearly 2,000 conversions resulted from B. Fay Miller's meetings here yesterday. More than 1,000 Sunday school children were among the converts. Business will be suspended throughout the city on Wednesday and the day devoted to revival meetings.

Mary's Bad Habit Sticks to Her. PORT SCOTT, Pa., Jan. 23.—Mary Covert, 18 years old, notorious as a female horse thief, whose youth and beauty aroused sympathy and elenchy, was released from jail Saturday afternoon, and less than half an hour later she was back in the same place, having stolen a horse and a carriage from a livery stable at Herper, this county. She escaped, but officers are in pursuit.

Fall River Boats Damaged. FALL RIVER, Mass., Jan. 24.—The city of Taunton of the Fall River line punched a hole in her hull while trying to make her freight through the ice-bound slip. Her deck through the ice-bound slip. Her deck through the ice-bound slip.

Printed the Mormon Bible. RATH, Me., Jan. 24.—Major John H. Gilbert, who "set up" the Mormon Bible from the original manuscript and "worked it off" on the "Damage Press" which was recently discovered in a barn at Rose, Wayne county, is still living in Palmyra, where the book was printed. He preserved what is known technically as a "presman" copy of the Bible, and said it was not long ago for $300. The book was printed in 1829-30. Major Gilbert is about 90 years old and remarkably well-preserved.

Don't fail to hear to-night in Queen's Avenue Methodist Church, the Cornish evangelist, Rev. A. Browning. The meetings are increasing in interest and numbers each evening.

Interesting English Vital Statistics—The Monocle Must Go—Diversed Persons Are Outside the Pale of the Church—Progress of the Jacobite Movement.

(Special Cable.) LONDON, Jan. 23.—It may be said authoritatively that the Prince of Wales will not yield to the solicitations that he should visit the Chicago Exhibition. The announcement of the betrothal of the Duke of York and the Princess Mary can be expected any day now, and the nuptials will assuredly be celebrated in London at the height of the season, probably in the latter part of April. There is good reason for believing that the Prince and others of the royal family will do their utmost to make the season this year one of the most brilliant for years.

ten years ago. They have not since been received at court, and apparently their names are also forgotten by the church. The Countess is the divorced wife of Alford Miller Mundy, head of an ancient Derbyshire family.

AN ANTI-SLAVERY EXPEDITION. The sum of $15,000 is being collected in feverish haste in Brussels for fitting out another anti-slavery expedition to Central Africa.

RENEWED FRIENDSHIP ANTICIPATED. The Czarowitz, who will attend the wedding of Princess Margaret and Prince Frederick Carl, will remain in Berlin for a week. The fact has aroused great expectations of a renewal of the friendship that formerly existed between the German and Russian courts.

A LAUDABLE MOVEMENT. The incorporated Publishers' Association commenced business last week under a special license from the Board of Trade Association. It has been formed for the nefarious object of running out the nefarious industry of dealers in fictitious luxuries in first state copies. Not more than 400 of such copies are to be issued in each issue, and each proof impression will bear the association's stamp, which will guarantee the purchaser's guarantee that he is buying a genuine article and not a spurious thing.

THE ROTHSCCHILD SYNDICATE HAS DECIDED NOT TO ISSUE THE AUSTRIAN AND HUNGARIAN gold loans in either London or Vienna. They will be issued in Amsterdam. The syndicate which has taken the loan at 92, will offer it at 94.

AN M. P. WEDS A DANSEUSE. A sensation has been caused in Irish circles by the announcement that Mr. T. B. Curran, M. P. for Kilkenny, has been privately married at the registry office in Manchester to an Australian danseuse named Marie Brooke, who is playing the principal part, that of a boy, in a local pantomime. Mr. Curran is about 22 years of age, and is the youngest member of the House of Commons.

THE JACOBITE MOVEMENT CONTINUES TO flourish in certain fashion. Although in the public view it has not got beyond the stage of ridicule, its advocates, or some of them, appear to be terribly in earnest. They do not propose to do anything but to claim that the British throne is rightfully the property of Queen Victoria does not represent the direct and only original Stuart line.

A BUSINESS EXCHANGE.

Establishment of an Employment Bureau in London.

Mr. W. A. Shepard, of Montreal, Opens an Office—Highly Recommended and Recognized by the Government—Situations of All Kinds Furnished—A Ladies' and Domestic Department.

London has once again found favor with an outside commercial concern. Mr. W. A. Shepard, compiler and proprietor of the Montreal, has 50 offices in the principal cities of the United States and twelve in the cities of the Empire. During the past seventeen years he has been engaged in this business and has made a name for himself as a man of business and thorough study of the beginning to end of the trade. There is a ladies' and a domestic department, managed exclusively by experienced ladies. There are also commodious and pleasant reception rooms and private apartments of any kind, or if you want help of any kind, you cannot do better than call on Mr. Shepard. All classes of mercantile help, male and female, can be brought from any part of the city and can be furnished the employer "free of cost or on terms." Many of the leading railway companies in both countries are supplied with engineers, section men and every kind of help through this agency. Cashiers, traveling salesmen, stenographers, clerks, porters, waiters, butchers, lumbermen, farmers, messenger boys, lady companions, nurses, milliners, landresses, etc., are greatly aided in getting situations.

The agency undertakes to sell or rent farms, houses, lots, to obtain loans on their own or to purchase for customers on interest, lands, houses, horses, cattle, pianos, jewelry, etc. Accounts are collected and estates managed.

The Canadian and American press speak in very complimentary terms of the agency, so much unlike the fraudulent and irresponsible employment bureaus found in many cities. The agency will be a material benefit to any city where an office may be opened. It is the largest of its kind in America, and is free from all the objectionable features of the old-time intelligence office. The bureau's office of conducting business, and its facilities are so exceptionally superior to the general agency of employment agencies that the strongest terms may be used in commending it to the public. Mr. Shepard comes to London with an unquestioned reputation as an able and reliable business man, and his agency is doubtless well worthy of the confidence of the people. The Dominion Government recognizes this bureau in all commercial matters, and is called upon to give information as to the demand and supply of skilled, commercial and mechanical help from foreign shores. Mr. Shepard holding a position as special emigration agent.

THE CHOLERA OUTBREAK. BERLIN, Jan. 24.—Prof. Koch has returned from Vitebsk, and reports that the cholera in the Russian empire is of the most virulent Asiatic type. Proper precautions have been taken, he says, to isolate the infected region, and there is little danger that the cholera will be communicated to Halle, which is some miles distant. The pipes which have hitherto conveyed water from the River Saale to the asylum have been stopped. The river is believed to be infected, and persons in the villages on the river and below Vitebsk have been warned against using it before boiling it for half an hour.

STEAMBOAT OWNERS FINED. NORTH BAY, Ont., Jan. 24.—The Marine Department have been making it uncomfortable during the past few days for steamboat owners on Lake Nipissing, who have been running their boats and carrying passengers during the past summer without having a license or without their boats properly inspected. A few days ago Wm. Windsor, of Collingwood, was fined $650. On Friday John Ferguson, of North Bay, had a like fine imposed, and yesterday J. R. Booth, of Ottawa, was similarly treated. Capt. Thomas Donnelly, of Kingston, is prosecuting on behalf of the department, and has five or six charges still on hand.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT. (From the Montreal Witness.) The London Advertiser is not disheartened by the failure of the people of that city to adopt the by-law closing the saloons at 7 o'clock every evening, which was referred to them at the municipal elections. It regards as a gratifying fact, that no fewer than 2,757 of the best men and women of London, out of a total vote of 5,661, expressed their opinion that the early closing of saloons and bars would be in the best interests of the community. Ministers of all denominations advocated the early closing movement, and, within the fortnight the campaign lasted, converted hundreds from opponents to supporters of it. With undiminished courage, the Advertiser declares, the friends of the Forward Movement thank God, feeling persuaded that they are identified with this most growing movement of the day.

ALASKAN INDIANS STARVING. SAN DIEGO, Cal., Jan. 24.—John C. Green, mine owner and prospector at Golovin Bay, Alaska, has returned from there. He says the Inuit Indians, to the number of 600, along the Fish River, are in a starving condition. Game is scarce, and all they have to live on is the fish which they dry in summer. Even this meager supply is stolen from them by the Malamut Indians, a powerful tribe who come down annually from Port Clarence and reach the Inuit fish traps. The Inuit, Green says, are peaceful, honest people, and have been of great assistance to shipwrecked sailors on their coast.

THE "AD." DOES THE BUSINESS. (Lewiston Evening Journal.) A neat illustration of the value of serious advertising was given at the Portland Young Men's Christian Association meeting Sunday, when General Secretary McDonald stated that he had some curiosity to know what method of advertising reached the most people. He had circulated thousands of little doggers, giving notice of the meeting, and he asked those who had seen them, and had been moved to come through that means, to rise. The hall was packed as full as it could hold, and of the entire number about fifteen arose. Then Mr. McDonald asked all who had read the notices in the newspapers, and had been influenced by them, to rise, and the crowd rose in a body.

Narrow Escape from a Horrible Death of an Animal Trainer. HAVESVILLE, Mass., Jan. 24.—William O. Bannan, an animal trainer, formerly employed by the Walter L. Main circus, and at present in charge of the animals at a Wonderland Museum, was the victim of a thrilling occurrence Sunday afternoon and had a miraculous escape from being crushed in the coils of a boa constrictor. He had burned a sore out of the mouth of the reptile, causing it intense pain. About noon he opened the cage and took out the snake for the purpose of examining the sore. The reptile, once coiled itself around Bannan's body and neck, pinning his arms down to his sides. Tighter and tighter coiled the snake, and Bannan became unconscious. J. D. Harrison tried to pry it off the man's neck with an iron bar, but the snake turned on him. He then opened his knife and cut the reptile's throat. It was ten feet long, weighed 11½ pounds and was valued at $100. The snake was exhibited every day by a female charmer, and never showed signs of viciousness before. Bannan will recover.
