

LONDON NURSE WAS KILLED WHEN HAMILTON AUTOMOBILE RAN OVER AN EMBANKMENT

Tragic Death of Miss Susie L. Perkins—Her Cousin, Miss Dorothy Hobson, Whom She Was Nursing, Was Badly Injured—Chauffeur Was Talking to the Girls When the Accident Happened.

[G. N. W. Dispatch.]

Hamilton, Ont., June 30.—Miss Susan L. Perkins, a trained nurse, of London, Ontario, was instantly killed, and Miss Dorothy Hobson, the 17-year-old daughter of Robert Hobson, general manager of the Hamilton Steel and Iron Company, was seriously injured as the result of the worst auto accident in the history of the city, occurring shortly before 6 o'clock this evening.

Keith McCrae, the chauffeur, was also badly injured. Miss Hobson was convalescing after an attack of typhoid fever, and Miss Perkins, who was her second cousin, had been nursing her through her illness. They were out for a breath of fresh air on the mountain. They occupied the rear seat, and McCrae was driving.

While descending the Strongman Mountain road, which is a deep grade, McCrae evidently lost control of the car and ran to the edge of the road. He struck and tore up a portion of the fence and the car went over the embankment, falling a twisted mass of steel and wood on the road below, a distance of thirty feet.

McCrae extricated himself from the wreckage, and although dazed, tried to help out the two young women. Miss Hobson was taken out first. Miss Perkins was lifeless when found. Her neck was broken, and death for her was instantaneous and painless.

Miss Hobson was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where it is said an operation was performed for a broken hip.

It is stated that her condition is critical, in view of her recent illness. McCrae was taken to the city hospital.

It is said that while dazed he made the statement that he was leaning back conversing with the two young women and did not know he had run to the side of the road until too late.

An inquest has been opened by Coroner Griffin.

The late Miss Perkins was a daughter of Mrs. J. L. Perkins, 263 Piccadilly street. She had not lived in London at any time, but had visited relatives in the city at times.

Her mother and family have lived here only about three months. They received news of the sad tragedy at 8:30 last night by a telephone message from Hamilton.

Miss Perkins was a graduate of the City Hospital, Hamilton, and had resided in that city for the past ten years. Most of her life, however, was spent in Lindsay, where her family lived before moving to London. She was born in Ingersoll, but lived there only a short time.

A SAD FEATURE. A sad feature of the tragedy is the fact that she was to have come up to her mother's home here next Saturday and spend a month's holiday.

The family was looking forward to her visit next Saturday, and felt the shock of her death greatly when they received the message last night. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. J. L. Perkins, two sisters, Ethel and Rachael, and one brother, Will, all residing at 263 Piccadilly street. There also is a brother, Charles, in St. Catharines, a sister, Josephine, of Waterloo, and her grandmother, Mrs. R. Wilson, of Piccadilly street.

Interment will take place in the family burying ground at Lindsay. The date has not yet been definitely arranged. The family will go down to Lindsay for the funeral.

ST. THOMAS AND ELGIN AGREE TO THE SANATORIUM TERMS

Meeting Was Held in the Board of Trade Rooms Yesterday and There Were Expressions of Good Will—A Change On the Alexandra Board.

At a meeting of the London Health Association held yesterday afternoon in the board of trade rooms, representatives from St. Thomas city council and Elgin County council were present, and the terms as originally proposed for the admission of patients from these places to the sanatorium were agreed to, and an agreement will be prepared at once.

The mayor and aldermen of St. Thomas stated that they were unanimously in favor of making the grant of $3,334 required of them, on condition that the county of Elgin would make up the remainder of $5,000.

He is asked of the combined municipalities.

Are Well Pleased. The speakers said that they were very fortunate in such excellent facilities for their patients at such a moderate cost. They said that they could not begin to build and equip and maintain such an institution of their own, and would be too glad to contribute what was asked if they could send their patients to London.

The St. Thomas and Elgin men were given to understand that it was not the intention to allow municipalities which do not contribute to send in any patients.

A Change. At the meeting Mr. B. Smallman resigned from the office of vice-president, and Mr. W. M. Spencer was elected to take his place. Mr. Smallman will remain on the board.

Dr. P. P. Drake and Hon. Adam Beck, delegates to the annual convention at Montreal of the Society for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, gave their report, and spoke of the great enthusiasm the work that is being done here is causing throughout the country.

7TH REGT. OFF FOR SARNIA MARCHED AWAY 400 STRONG Crack City Corps Will Spend the Holiday Under Canvas in the Border Town—Boys Will Troop the Colors Today.

At 7:45 last night the Seventh Regiment, well over 400 strong, left for Sarnia, where they will remain under canvas beside Lake Huron until Sunday evening. The men in their blues and tunics, headed by the bands, presented a very fine appearance, and thousands of citizens turned out to witness their departure. There is no doubt that the men will maintain the splendid reputation they made last year at Sarnia, and on the other occasions when they have gone away.

Transportation Excellent. The transportation arrangements for taking them to Sarnia were splendid, each company having a large car for its own use. There was no crowding whatever similar to that which took place in all the through expresses and which made travelling almost unbearable owing to the heat. As soon as the men reached the station they were trained, and changed their tunics for their cool serge. The train pulled out on time, and made a speedy run for Sarnia. The men upon their arrival there were taken at once in cars to the lakeside, where their tents were already in place and everything ready for them as the advance guard in command of Capt. Graham went down on Wednesday and spent yesterday getting things in shape.

Troop the Colors. Today the men will troop the colors and do some battalion work, and in the afternoon will be free to enjoy the holiday. On Saturday a tactical day will be held and a big sham battle fought. On Sunday the regiment will attend divine service in the morning. Camp will be struck at 2:30 in the afternoon, and the men will be free to do as they wish until 6 p.m., when they will entrain and return to the city.

COLLEGIATE EXAM. RESULTS ARE OUT Names of the Medal Winners Are Announced by Principal McCutcheon. CONTESTS VERY CLOSE Earl Grosse Won the Philip Pocock Prize—Result of the Year's Work.

The list of successful students at the Collegiate Institute shows some remarkably high percentages this year. The competition for the medals was particularly keen, only a fraction in some cases, only six or seven marks out of 2,600, separated some of the competitors.

The C. M. R. Graham medals for proficiency in the second year were won by Floyd Maine, 71 Ashlin street, and Gladys Steele, Nightingale avenue. There was a keen fight among the girls of the form for this medal. Gladys Steele's standing was 91 per cent, and was only a fraction of a per cent above Eva Southcott and Dorothy Turville.

Practically speaking, the percentages were the same, only a few marks separating.

A Clever Girl. Miss Steele achieved particularly creditable performance in that it is the third successive year in which she has won a medal. Last year she captured the Stevely medal for the highest standing in the first year, and two years ago she won the Boyle medal for the highest marks on the entrance examination at the Rectory Street School.

The Ex-Mayor Stevely medalists for proficiency in the first year were Ross Belton, 377 Wellington street, and Gladys Wright, 346 Maitland street. Ross Belton obtained 93 per cent, which was only a fraction of a per cent above that of Wallace Shoenberg. Gladys Wright obtained 92.6 per cent. She was one of the entrance medalists last year.

The medalist in the second year of the commercial school was Annie Reid, 101 Hamilton road. She repeated her performance of last year when she won the medal in the first year.

The W. T. Strong medalist in the first year commercial course was Edith Vann, 192 Richmond street. Prize of $20.

The winner of the Philip Pocock prize of $20 for the student making the greatest progress, was won by Earl Grosse, who entered the Collegiate Institute at Christmas in his first year, and completed the year's work at the same time obtaining a percentage of 78.

The prizes donated by City Auditor Jewell for the student making the greatest progress in writing in the commercial school were won as follows: First year—First, Mabel Petch, 281 Simcoe street; second, John Hay, Lambeth; general course—First, Helen Patterson, 856 Hellmuth avenue; second, Richard Crouch, 230 Talbot street.

The McEvoy medalist for proficiency in public speaking is Bert Hannah, 367 Princess avenue.
