SAYS ANGLICAN BODY IS CATHOLIC CHURCH

Bishop Farthing Declares the Title Belongs to the Church of England.

[Canadian Press.]
Montreal, Feb. 8.—At a banquet in connection with the meetings of the Montreal Synod last night, Bishop Farthing objected to the report of an Italian church being called Catholic.

"I think when we Anglicans give a title like that, we are giving away our own heritage," he said. "We are yielding the very point that we should be the first to contest, and, therefore, it seems to me that we stand in Canada as the Catholic Church of the English-speaking people. That is a position we must never allow anyone to take from us. And as such we stand to guard the Scriptures."

The bishop complained about the irreverence of the age, and urged his hearers to contend against flippancy about holy things. He particularly inveighed against stories based upon subjects characters or words of holy writ. The Anglican Church in Canada also stood for sacraments, on which, however, there was far too much laxity.

WAS 87 YEARS OLD

She first settled at Dexter, later going to Union, and in 1869 she moved to Yarmouth. She was 87 years old, and is survived by one son, and one daughter, Mr. E. D. Welding, on the homestead, and Mrs. Rock Bailey, of Union; also two sisters, Mrs. M. D. Chigo, of Chicago, and Mrs. R. M. Graham, Melita, Manitoba.

WANT FEES RAISED.

Brantford, Feb. 8.—The Brantford Collegiate Institute Board will send a deputation to the Ontario Government asking that the fees charged to county pupils be raised from 80 to 100 per cent. of the cost of tuition. The reason for the request is that the county contributes nothing towards cost of the building or equipment of the collegiate institutes in cities.
