To Have Smooth, White, Soft Skin All Winter

Does your skin chap or roughen easily in this weather, or become unattractively blotchy? Let me tell you a quick, easy way to overcome the trouble and keep your complexion beautifully white, smooth and soft the winter long. Just get an ounce of ordinary mercurized vasoline from the nearest drug store and use a little before retiring, as you would cold cream. From arising, remove the coating with sudsy water. The wax, through some peculiar attribute, removes the rough, flake-like particles, leaving the skin clear, healthy and free from all dandruff and other skin troubles. Mercurized vasoline is a natural skin preservative. It keeps the face constantly free from devitalized scurf and only the healthy, young-looking skin is in evidence. It's the best treatment known for weather-beaten, aged, muddy, freckled, pimply and all unbecoming conditions. Some skins wrinkle easily in winter. There's an excellent remedy in a hairless wash lotion made by dissolving 1 oz. powdered vasoline in 1/2 pint water. This will quickly eradicate every line. —The Woman Beautiful—Advt.

Board of Health Takes Precautionary Measure at Richmond Street North.

Because the parents of pupils attending the Richmond street north school were afraid of diphtheria, the board of health thoroughly fumigated the school yesterday.

"There was no danger," said Dr. Burdon, chairman of the board, last night, "but we took the action as a precautionary measure."

"I'M GOING TO BERLIN,"

SING BATTALION MEN

Volunteers of 18th Artillery

Volunteers by Salvation Army

In Citadel.

London applause and lots of it. It was a real feature of the entertainment of soldiers of the Eighteenth Battalion by the Salvation Army in the Army Citadel on Clarence street last night. The hall was well-filled with men and officers. The program consisted of patriotic selections, melodies, by the band, and recitations and vocal selections. The soldiers got enthusiastic over the song "Roll Along Jordan," of which the last line reads "I'm going to Canada, anyhow." They substituted "Berlin" for "Canada" and sang it for at least ten minutes.

During the evening, Controller J. P. Moore, addressed the soldiers, welcoming them to London, and in doing so, asserted that although Londoners were not habitually demonstrative, they nevertheless thought a great deal of the men of the Eighteenth Battalion, and appreciated to the fullest extent their patriotism and self-sacrifice. Mr. Moore also had some praise for the Salvation Army, many of whose members he said were now on the battle line in the British Army. The speaker read the last address of Lord Roberts to Canadian troops at Salisbury Main, which was read just before the death of the great soldier. Mr. Moore pointed out "Bobs" as the greatest soldier, and one who was a Christian man.

The soldier-salience joined in many of the choruses, played by the band on the platform. The program was as follows:

Opening song: "Rule Jehovah" by the congregation; prayer; patriotic air, "O Canada"; the band; vocal selection, "Roll Along Jordan"; songsters; recitation, "The Band"; vocal selection, "English Melodies"; introducing "Rule Britannia" and "Hearts of Oak"; the band; address, "Song of Scotland"; Moore's selection, "Songs of Scotland"; the band; instrumental quartet, "Scotia"; by bandmen Ward, Wilson, Potter, Andrews, grand march, "The Band"; the band; vocal selection, "Always Rejoicing"; grand selection, "Irish Melodies"; the band; address by Reginald Bettridge of the Salvation Army; Cantata of National airs, introducing those of America, Norway, Sweden, India, France, Japan, Denmark, Holland, Belgium and "God Save the King."

The entire audience was served with refreshments by the ladies of the Salvation Army. Brigadier Bettridge presided instead of Lieut.-Col. Wigle, of the Eighteenth Battalion, who was unable to attend the entertainment.

CHRONICLES HIS DEATH

Correspondents Bulletin Prints Obituary of F. W. R. Henman, Former Londoner.

The Correspondents Bulletin, the organ of the National Association of Newspaper Correspondents, contains in its recent issue a long account of the death of F. W. R. Henman, business manager of the Times-Union at Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. Henman was born in this city in 1861, and went to Jacksonville 23 years ago. He met his death on a Clyde liner off the Carolina coast about the middle of last month when F. P. H. Perkins, a demented architect, of Boston, drew a revolver and commenced firing on the passengers. Henman was struck and died immediately.

Explains Pension Idea

General Manager Glauz Outlines Commission's Superannuation System.

General Manager H. J. Glauz spoke to about fifteen employees of Station No. 1 yesterday afternoon to explain the new system of old-age pensions which the department is putting into effect soon. The men were all in favor of the plan as unfolded by Mr. Glauz, and under the terms of which their pensions will not be under $35 a month nor over $1,000 a year. Copies of the old-age annuities system as it is proposed to be carried out here are now in the hands of the commissioners for consideration, but before action is taken it is desired to find out how the employees feel about it.
