Diets and exercise are sometimes help-ful for reducing. But they are incon venient and unpleasant, and usually produce only temporary results. Then, too, they are merely corrective measures. A better way is to aid the digestive organs to turn food into muscle, bone, and sinew, and not into corpulent tissue. This method allows you to eat many kinds of food which others eat and does not require strenuous exercise.

Canadian Nationality. Dr. T. D. Rutherford moved a meas-irths, marriages and deaths. The resolution read: "The Liberal party in the province of Ontario resolve that the interests of Canada and Canadians can best be served by the recognition of Canadian as a distinct nationality in addition to any other required information in all matters of registration at the option of the registrar."

This resolution was going through with the automatic ease of its pre-decessors, when Mr. Z. Mageau of Sturgeon Falls took the platform and urgently appealed to the convention to cast no slight on their fellow French-Canadians. Later Mr. Mageau discovered that the resolution had been amended since his inspecion of it last night. He therefore withdrew his objection, and the reso-

Ovation for Dewart.

In the middle of the proceeding H. Hartley Dewart, former leader of the party, entered and the convention rose in the greatest applause since yesterday morning. At the conclusion of resolution Mr. Preston called on Mr. Dewart, who rose amid another ovation, thanked the convention in a voice shaken with evident emotion, and congratulated the Liberal party on such demonstration of its vital-

Hon. T. A. Low, minister without portfolio in the Dominion cabinet, expressed the belief that Premier Mac-kenzie King would return to Ottawa after the next election with more fol-lowers than he had at present.

At 11:30, following Mr. Low's remarks, Chairman Preston announced that the first move would now be made in clearing the decks for the taking of the vote on the new leader. A flutter of expectancy swept over the convention as non-delegates were removed from the floor to the gallery, and all senators and members of parliament again took seats on the plathad come for, and for this they had through endless oratory. Among those moving to the platform were Hon. W. C. Kennedy, North Essex, minister of railways; Hon. T. A. ow, South Renfrew, minister wi portfolio: W. A. Raymond, M.P., of Brantford; H. Hartley Dewart, Wellington Hay, M.P.P., W. E. N. Sinclair, M.P.P., George Ramsden, Capt. Jack Ramsden, M.P.P., and Thomas Marshall, M.P.P.

Woman Enters Protest.

Ten men and two ladies were named. Mrs. Ferguson of Toronto, however, took the platform, and protested vehemently against lack of representation of her sex. "I think you are awfully unfair," she cried, "and if this is the way the convention is going to be run, it is a shame."

The convention decided that nominations be opened again. Someone moved that Mrs. Ferguson be allowed to name as many as she liked.

"No, no," suggested the women Finally a cooler head delegates. uggested that the first seven names on the previous list stand good, that Mrs. Ferguson name the remaining three. Chairman Preston took the vote and declared the motion car-

President Preston tried to distribute the scrutineers.

"We want a lady on our aisle," called a French-Canadian voice. "We'll have no flirting here," retorted the chairman.

The scrutineers then took their places in each aisle, and the chair-man explained that the roll of accredited delegates would be called and as each delegate rose he would be handed a ballot. In the meantime Hon. W. C. Kennedy, M.P., minister of railways, was called on to address the convention.

Election May Be Soon.

Mr. Kennedy spoke briefly: "If this meeting augurs anything, then at the next election, which may be soon, the Liberals in the provincial field will do even better than did we in the Dominion contest." After conveying to the delegates the regret of Mackenzie King at not being able to attend the convention, he touched on a rumor to the effect that the Domin-
