The Presbyterians at Puce are down on their pastor, Rev. J. P. McInnes, for his questionable ways of raising money. The money-raising idea in question is the carrying on of a contest between James Anderson and Dr. H. K. Casgrain, both of Windsor, for a gold-headed cane. The votes sold for a quarter each, and the thing promised to be a howling success financially, but the flock does not like the way the money comes. It is said an attempt will be made to depose their pastor.

The office of the Deering Harvester Company, York street, was the scene of an interesting affair yesterday afternoon. Several of the company's "blockmen" or general agents from various parts of the Province—Messrs. C. W. Barker, J. Martin, A. E. Johnston, A. E. Campbell, D. McVicar, Geo. Bewell, D. Rupert, J. C. Hyndman, R. Mowbray, J. R. Cuthbert (Chicago) and L. Leitch—were with Mr. H. H. Hannon, the manager for Ontario, met to discuss matters connected with the business, and also to take part in an interesting and pleasant ceremony.

Mr. Chas. Merrill, book-keeper in the city office, has proven a most faithful and efficient employee, and the "blockmen" had determined to express in a tangible way their appreciation of the manner in which he has performed his duties. Accordingly, after business matters had been disposed of, Mr. Laing stepped forward and read a most flattering address, at the same time presenting Mr. Merrill with a handsome certificate.

Mr. Merrill was dumbfounded with astonishment and a most flattering address, at the same time presenting Mr. Merrill with a handsome certificate.

Ferguson, Hamilton; and Miss Phoebe Dillaway, Detroit.

Order has gone forth on the C. & G. T. system which is not exactly appreciated by the engineers. Heretofore each regular engineer has had his own engine and has taken pride in keeping it up. The thing is just the reverse now. The engine which has increased to such an extent that hereafter the engines will be kept in continuous commission until it is necessary for them to go into the repair shop. When an engineer is called to go on his regular run he will have no idea what engine he will take out until he reaches the round-house.

The parlors of the Catholic Club were crowded last evening, the occasion being the presentation of an address and testimonial to Rev. Father Tiernan, who has resigned, on account of ill-health, the position of rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, which he has filled so acceptably for the past 25 years.

Mr. John Forristal acted as chairman of the meeting and Mr. J. G. McDougall as secretary.

The address, which was beautifully engrossed, was read by Mr. John R. Dromgoole, as follows:—

To the Rev. Michael Joseph Tiernan, Rector of St. Peter's Cathedral, London.

We are here to-day, very dear father, to express, in some measure, our appreciation of the fact that you have spent the best years of your life in unselfish and devoted exertions for our spiritual and temporal welfare.

The tears of many, old and young, and especially of the poor and needy, convey more eloquently than can pen or tongue the sacred place you hold, not only in the hearts of your parishioners, but in the depths of the hearts of the citizens of London, without distinction of race or creed.

"Quarter a century's service." Wearing thy cassock of black; O'er thy camps and thy battles and triumphs, Soldier of Jesus, look back. From the day when thou kissed thy first altar.

In love with youth's fervor and thrill. To this day, when we meet and we greet thee, So true to the altar still."

Many of us here present were baptized by you. When old enough to make our first communion, it was you who taught us to appreciate the wondrous gift of that Divine food, and we had hoped that your consoling words and presence would smooth for us the dread passage to eternity.

We trust that the respite from your labors, granted by our already loved bishop, may be the means of renewing your strength and vigor, and that you may return to the diocese, where you are so well known and loved, to spend the remaining years of your life in health, peace and happiness.

The prayers of your people will attend you on your journey abroad, and we beg that you will ever remember us in the adorable sacrifice. May God bless you and grant us a reunion in the glorious hereafter.

On bidding you adieu, we ask you to accept the accompanying gift, as a tribute of a grateful people on your departure.

On behalf of the Catholic laity. JOHN FORRISTAL, Chairman.

Mr. R. H. Dignan, treasurer of the testimonial fund, then handed the rev. gentleman a cheque for $912, being the amount of the testimonial from the rev. father's friends in the city.

Rev. Father Tiernan made a touching and beautiful reply, alluding to the many years he had spent in London, and thanked the people of the city for their generous gift. He also alluded to the fact that during his administration in London he had baptized 4,323 children, married 400 couples, prepared 3,000 children for first communion and confirmation, and administered the last rites of the church to 2,000 people. The rev. gentleman was frequently applauded during his reply.

Addresses were also made by Rev. Father Ashward, the new rector of St. Peter's, and Rev. Fathers L'Heureux, Cleary and La Douceur.

An impromptu musical programme was then introduced, being taken part in by Messrs. J. Leech, W. E. Miller, C. Lockhart, M. Keogh and others. Mr. B. J. Conway gave a couple of capital recitations, that kept the audience in excellent humor, and the evening proceedings terminated with the singing of the national anthem.
