

The Bank of Commerce.

A Special Meeting to Sanction Agreement With Bank of B. C.

Chairman Explains the Terms and Shareholders Express Their Approval.

Pursuant to notice, a special general meeting of the shareholders of the Canadian Bank of Commerce was held in the banking house, Toronto, on Tuesday, 11th December, 1900, at 12 o'clock, to consider and approve of the agreement with the Bank of British Columbia...

Before reading the deed of purchase and offering the necessary explanation, Mr. Plummer would like to explain briefly what steps have been taken in connection with the proposed acquisition of the Bank of British Columbia...

In valuing the items in default, particular care was taken to ascertain that the value of the real estate which fell into the hands of the bank...

It is to be remembered that we understand it as good a position regarding our services as they had been rendered by the executive officers of the bank...

Lord Chief Justice of England.

A Character Sketch from M. A. P., by T. P. O'Connor, M. P.

The other day when I was in the Swiss mountains, I got several lessons in the art of walking; and so I learned the inner meaning of the peculiar gait which the mountain guide always adopts...

The distinguished parliamentarian to whom I am alluding is, of course, Lord Alverstone—the new Lord Chief Justice. As everybody knows, he was a great runner and walker in his youth...

Lord Alverstone was a favorite of fortune almost from the start of his professional career. And yet, before then, he had his troubles. A relative failed—not from want of ability or integrity, but from want of young fellow set himself the heroic but fruitless task of clearing off the whole of his father's estate...

As a side to the resolution which we have adopted, I should like to say a few words which I think will be a welcome addition to our staff...

Example is Better Than Precept.

It is not what we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story.

Thousands of testimonials are examples of what Hood's has done for others, and what it will do for you.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints.

Notice is hereby given that 30 days after date I intend to apply to the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works for a license to prospect for coal on the following described land...
