

SENATORIAL AMENITIES.

EPIC EXTRACTS FROM A DEBATE IN THE UPPER HOUSE.

The Old Gentleman: The particular about the choice of words—Punch about the Minister of Interiors.

OTTAWA, April 7.—The old gentleman who form the upper chamber of the Dominion parliament may not be much on the work, but they are great on the talk. They had a corker of a time last week, on Dr. McInnes' resolution that British Columbia was entitled to representation in the senate.

Senator McInnes: I will take the liberty of reading a sort of extract from an article by Mr. A. Hallie Gray, in the Fortnightly Review for January last, this gentleman, it appears, had some views on the subject of British Columbia, I have never had the pleasure of meeting him, but consequently am not given him any of my ideas.

Senator McInnes: The west is making more progress in one year than the older provinces in half a dozen years. Only those who have seen the energy and perseverance and their way there, and all the drama remain at home.

Hon. Mr. O'Brien: That is a good thing. Hon. Mr. O'Brien: That is a good thing.

Hon. Mr. McInnes: I must confess I am considerably surprised at this intimation: if the hon. member from Halifax (Lalor) and the hon. gentleman from Montreal (O'Brien) had not the privilege of replying to me, I would not have been so much surprised.

Hon. Mr. O'Brien: That is a good thing. Hon. Mr. O'Brien: That is a good thing.

Hon. Mr. McInnes: I must confess I am considerably surprised at this intimation: if the hon. member from Halifax (Lalor) and the hon. gentleman from Montreal (O'Brien) had not the privilege of replying to me, I would not have been so much surprised.
