Auffalo Bill's cowboys are becoming a bore, as one is liable to meet them in the most unexpected places. A few women in good society seem to have lost their heads over these unturored sons of the prairie, and many of the men have taken them up as visitors to clubs. The result is that one meets cowboys at gar-The result is that one meets cowboys at gardeness, and has to listen, if not to their uncouth language, at least to their irritating drawl and their wild western comments upon current events. The presence of these men would not be tolerated in the saloons of New York or Roston, yet in England these adventurers are welcomed with open arms, flattered as though they were Bayards or Cricitons, permitted to flirt with the prettiest girls and married women, and readily excused if, perchauce, they have to be sent home in a state of semi-intoxication. Some women, who ought to know better, have even begun to call upon them in their tests and to sip afternoon the with these rough fellows.

A fingle nibble!

The German Count of course is here. Whose income nothing is a year;
The very shady British peer.
Beloved of swolldom.
They're forkune fishing, on, the sly; They for for titles are the bait they fly, But heircesses are rather shy.
And hite hut seldom.

A married woman, firting there, and with a club man I declare;
Madonna like and prayerful. Victims by dozens she'll despatch, But all I feer she's met her match, and Ruin is the fish she'll catch.
The keen reporters fish for news, Detectives angle here for clues, The actress fishing don't refuse.

That "bird" with glorious eyes and throat,
What shoats of dude fish round her float:
They're "long" on colar, "short" on coat;
How oft we've met them.
She gives a smile, a pout, a look,
She's learned the art from Cupid's book—
For compliments she bats her hook,
And doesn't she get them?

My little boy has always been afflicted, until recently, with Sore Eyes and Scrotulous Humors. We gave him Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, in a short time, his eyes ceased to trouble him; the humor disappeared, and his health was restored.—P. Germain, Dwight st., Holyoke, Mass.

Perfect Cure.

I have, from a child, and until within a few months, been afflicted with Sore Eyes. I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla, for this complaint, with beneficial results, and consider it a valuable blood purifier. —Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, Vt.

My little girl was badly afflicted with Scrofula, and suffered very much from Weak and Sore Eyes. I was unable to obtain relief for her until I commenced administering My son was weak and debilitated; troubled with Sore Eyes and Scrofulous Humors. TESTIMONIALS.

The proprietor of "JUNE OF LIFE" was cured of Asthma 10 years ago, after suffering over 20 years from it.

Mr. John Sennott, of Teronto, writes: "I suffered from Asthma when a child, and for nine years, taking many medicines without relief, till I got two bottles 'June of Life,' which cured the completely, and I can recommend it to other sufferers from Asthma.

(Signed) JOHN SENNOTT."

Mr. Robenson of 21 Arthurstreet, Toronto, writes: "I take great pleasure in recommending your 'June of Life to parties suffering from Asthma. I was a great sufferer from it for eight years, and tried every kind of Remedy I heard of, as well as a great many doctors, without relief. I was unable to lie in bed for a week at a time, and was seldom free from suffering till I took your 'June of Life,' about six years ago. Since then I have been a different man, never losing any rest or suffering any inconvenience from it since, and I think any one giving it a fair trial cannot fall to receive bene it by its use.
