

corne St. Luc to let you have 700 livres besides the 2300 which you have already received. I am, Sir, your humble servant.

CORNELIUS CUYLER.

From Mr. Johnson to Miss Miriam Willard.

QUEBEC, APRIL 16, 1756.

LOVING SISTER—After our love to you, there are to inform you that we are all well at present, as I hope these will find you and our little daughter, and all other friends at Montreal. I have written to you once before now, and we have had no answer, so that we do not know what your circumstances are, only that the General was so good as to let us know that you and Susanna were well. I would have you go to the General and beg the favor to come down here to live with us, for I have written to the General, and begged the same favor. I would have you spare no pains, for if you meet with any misfortunes it will contribute very much to your parents sorrow, as well as to ours. So I would not have you discouraged, or harbor any thoughts of staying in this country, for I do not doubt but we shall go home this summer; for I have desired the General to send home those of us that are paid for, and will stay in the country till there is a change of prisoners: and if you cannot come down, beg leave of the General to let you write to us—let us know what your circumstances are. Give my services to Mr. Duquesne and Madam, and to Susanna's mothers.—We remain your loving brother and sister

JAMES & SUSANNA JOHNSON.
