

Prepare for Christmas.

EVERY Forester will wish to present to his wife or his mother, and many Courts may desire to honor a retiring officer with, a Christmas Box that will be both useful and ornamental. Why not one that will also be emblematical of the Great Fraternal Order that has undertaken with the members to make certain provision for their beneficiaries? The picture on this page illustrates one of two styles of very handsome Foretric Parlor Lamps, which would make admirable gifts for the holiday season, and which the Supreme Court is willing to sell to Courts or Members for that purpose at a great reduction from the regular price. These Lamps are easily worth $15, and have been sold as high as $20, but Foresters who purchase before the 31st of December, next, can have them for $12, cash to accompany the order. As the supply is limited and cannot be renewed at present rates, Members or Courts contemplating purchasing should order as early as possible from

JOHN A. MCGILLIVRAY, S.S.,

TEMPLE BUILDING,

TORONTO, ONT.