

THE GREAT BRITISH QUATERLIES AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

Important Reprint in the Rates of Postage.

LEONARD SCOTT & Co., No. 54 Gold St., New York,

Continue to publish the following British Periodicals, via THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative) THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig), THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church), THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Liberal), and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory).

THESE REPRINTS have now been in successful operation in this country for twenty years, and their circulation is constantly on the increase notwithstanding the competition they encounter from American Periodicals of a similar class, and from numerous English and Magazines made up of selections from foreign Periodicals. This fact shows clearly the high estimation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public, and affords a guarantee that they are established on a firm basis, and will be continued without interruption.

Although these works are distinguished by the political shades above indicated, yet but a small portion of their contents is devoted to political subjects. It is their literary character which gives them their chief value, and in that they stand confessedly far above all other journals of their class. Blackwood, still under the masterly guidance of Christopher North, maintains its ancient celebrity, and is, at this time unusually attractive, from the serial works of Bulwer and other literary notables, written for that magazine, and being appearing in its columns both in Great Britain and in the United States. Such works as "The Castles," and "My New Novel," (both by Bulwer), "My Penitential Medal," "The Green Hand," and other serials, of which numerous rival editions are issued by the leading publishers from the pages of Blackwood, after it has been issued by Messrs. Scott & Co., so that Subscribers to the Reprint of that Magazine may always rely on having the earliest reading of these fascinating tales.

The Castilian Hair Invigorator.

THIS elegant Toilet Preparation is warranted to excel all others ever offered to the public, for Preserving and Restoring the hair, it prevents or cures baldness or grey hair; cures dandruff and ringworm; and what is of the highest importance, is, that it is unlike most other Toilet preparations, by being perfectly harmless, yet successful for the purposes recommended. It gives the hair a beautifully soft, smooth and glossy appearance; in this, it also differs from other preparations, all of which more or less harden and dry the hair. The Spanish Ladies, so justly famed for beautiful and glossy hair, have used for centuries. It causes the hair to retain its original colour to the latest period of life, only making it assume a darker shade if originally very light. Discarded hair loosens and falls out or turns grey. The Invigorator removes such disease, and restores the skin and hair to a healthy condition.
