FLOUR.—The market, which last week had again rallied, maintained a steady feeling until Thesday, when holders, in sympathy with the American markets, kept steadily advancing their views until vesterday, following, though less rapidly, the advance in the West. Prices regained all they bot, and sales have been to-day made at an advance on the highest prices reatised before the recent decline, and the tendency is still upward, notwithstanding that New York, which was 20c, better this morning, closes dill and lower. Quite a large number of round lots have changed hands on the spot, to arrive for forward delivery this and next month, amongst which we nicestales of 10 to bids of an ordinary brands mainly at $7,200 bids, for May and June on private terms. A number of lots of Chonce Bakers Flour on the spot brought $7,200 s 7,30 and Welland Canal Lour brought $7,200 s 7,30 and Welland Canal Lour brought $7,200 s 7,30 and Welland Canal Lour brought $7,200 better the southern and participate in the continuent has been continued more to Spring Wheel. Flour Americans are, however again turning their attention to this market and day several 100 barrel loss have been sent to the Lastern States. Fancy is not to be had. The low gades have not been plentiful, and have fluctuated with Supers. All grades close firm at advanced rates Rye Hour has also come in for a more than asual share of attention, and sales have been teely made at varying prices within the range of our quotations.

Oversital.—Both demand and supply limited, prices firm

OATMEAL - Both demand and supply limited, prices

WHEAT -Prices here continue nominal; no tran-WHEAT—Prices here continue nominal; no transactions of any consequence are taking place on the spot, and very little is coming forward. Quite a number of round lots in C.W., belonging to parties here are found amply sufficient to neet current wants have changed hands at variable prices, one barge of Fall wheat on Lake throm banging *197; while a number of lots of Spring have changed hands at prices varying from $1.40 to $1.50 heing equal to the nominal value here. Yesterday wheat opened at 150 on Milwankee, advanced to $198, and closed firm at $1.91, and to-day it closes at $1.25.

PEAS.—Quite a number of car-leads have been dis-jood of during the week, at prices ranging from 85/c to 87c per 66 lbs, and at the close we notice sales to the extent of hood bushels at 88c, equal to 80c jer 60 lbs., also near 3000 bushels, to arrive, at equal to 77c the calso near 3600 bashels, to arrive, at equal to reper 60 lbs.

Conn.—We notice sales of 2500 bushels for June delivery at 550 on the spot; holders ask 600.

BARLEY—No change to notice. Sales are small, and mainly at quotations.

Overs—Continue to meet with moderate attention, but much of what has arrived recently by G.T. R.R., on account of want of facilities for landing them, have been disposed of at comparatively low rates. Sales in quantity could still, however, be made, if afford, at our outside quotations.

quantity could still, however, be inade, if affort, atour outside quotations.

SEEDS—(Torr + The season is now near over and the demand has suddenly dropped off. Several small lots have changed hands during the week at Se to See per the but there is no great disposition on the part of holders to part with their stocks at these prices, as they prefer currying them over till next season. The demand for Timothy has also dropped off, and prices are variable.

REEP - Has met with considerable attention during REFF - Has met with considerable attention during the week, and prices generally are higher. We useful reported sale of 240 bbls. Frime Mess at $17, and reveral other lots obering at rame price.

Porky—Also has advanced, and is firmly held at our advanced quotations. The demand is not very strong though several round lots have changed hands during the week. But confidence being strong in the market, there is no disposition to recode.

BUTTER continues dull and neglected, the supplies are not large but in the absence of an outside demand they are found amply sufficient to neet carrent wints.

UTFER continues firm at quotations.

FETROLEUM—The market has advanced about 24 cents per gallon on Canada Refixed, and closes trinat quotations, though no round lot could be placed at out die rate.
