“LIKE A CHRISTIAN.”

Mother, I know that Emma is a Christian.” said little Willy one day, after coming in from a pleasant play with his sister.

“What makes you think so, my child?”

“Because, mother, she plays like a Christian.”

“Plays like a Christian?” asked the mother, the expression sounding a little odd.

“Yes,” replied the child; “if you take everything she's got she don't get angry. Before, she was selfish, and if she didn't have everything her own way, she would say, ‘I won't play with you; you are a disagreeable little boy.’”—My Paper.
