ourselves and the Universities of the in the educational line. Besides this, 'Brother Jonathan' is a member of the family, and the eldest son at that, even if he is a run-away son. We do not speak of 'Thos. Jones, 'So', because such-and-such a "Yankee" College paper alludes to 'Ino. Brown '73,' but because by the figures '80, we are told what year Thos. Jones either did or will take his degree in, and consequently just as Trinity College tells us where he took his degree, '80 tells us when. We accept a custom because it is good, not because it is are thoroughly loyal.

to criticize strongly the action of the authorities touching the sale of College calendars. This annual should be our chief advertising medium. In no other way but through indirect references to our existence by newspaper correspondents (and these not always complimentary) are our many claims on the public made manifest - the "Bursar and Secretary's" Michaelmas card only excepted. However gratifying it may be to Trinity men to reflect that their Alma Mater annually offers to the Canadian youth through competitive examinations nearly two thousand dollars in scholarships, etc., (subject to no religious test but a compliance to existing discipline) yet it is to be sincerely regretted that this opinions of such a class—if we under- We thank the CHANCELLOR, howinformation, with a host of other equally valuable facts, is not distributed gratuitously, but doled out to the public from within is unpleasant, of course, pose our Alma Mater by a reference to at a shilling a piece. But this will, we to the authorities, but the unpleasant-possible abuses (if any) which energy make no doubt, be speedily remedied, ness of the act no less heart-felt by and University spirit cannot remove. And in view of such a change it is the source. It is our duty to be candid well to draw the attention of its if we deal with University matters at painful and disappointing phase of the compilers to the inconvenience given all, and in doing so, our language has, occurrence—the co-incident intimation information-seekers by the lack of systand always will be, as temperate and of the probable action of the College tem in its arrangement. It sets out moderate as the nature of the case authorities is significant, we fear, of with a Calendar beginning with May permits. This by way of preface, not their time-honoured illiberality. Whatand abruptly ending at April, though of apology. And, though we but ever the value of the threat-if threat the College year gives no excuse for reiterate what we have already said, we must regard it—or of the moral such an eccentricity of sequence. The we apprehend that we have the inalien-force of a possibly adverse verdict, we

United States, for if we speak honestly and Law, then follow, to the latter of upon the public inaction of our Board. (and so may we ever), we must allow which is tacked the conditions of a We regard the Corporation as the that our sister nation at least does well Divinity prize. Twenty pages further servant of the University, and as such on the would-be Matriculant may per- it should actively reflect their feelings. haps stumble on the Matriculation As in our last number we stated, the Examination under the head of Schol-graduates of Trinity are her real sharearships. If there is any special reason holders for their concern for her wellfor such an arrangement, by all means, being is vital and (on the lowest at least, have a table of ontents. Our grounds) selfish. They have more Calendar may be made of great use if than a merely nominal or honorary copies are judiciously spread over this interest in her ascendancy in the eduand the neighbouring dioceses. With cational world—they have the stake pains it may be mastered, and if easily of their degree the intrinsic worth of obtainable, our University would be which, we again urge, is to be measured put in a fair light before the public by the public estimate of their Uni-We have no cause to hide our rich versity's present status. The value of endowment or our many inducements their degree - to them the chiefest English: we reject a usage, because to the youth of the Province. The consideration — is cheapened in the it is bad, not because it is America...|clergy are natural agents on o ir be-And yet, strange as it may seem, we half, who would each and all willingly in their University's standing. Hence distribute detailed and explicit infor- their right to be heard and the conmation regarding the Church Univer-sideration due to their sentiments. WE took occasion in our last number sity of the Province throughout their parishes. Again there is no reason we have lately been honoured by a that its appearance should be delayed till withir, two months of the close of touching our expressions of opinion current College year.

UNIVERSITY QUESTIONS.

IN a recent number of the Dominion Churchman there appeared a criticism upon our last number. Our contemporary evidently objects to our tone stated that he understood from our in dealing with questions affecting our first number that our object was the University. We have been out-spoken, establishment of a purely literary pecertainly, and we thought we clearly riodical. explained why. We trust we express casual perusal even of that number the views and feelings of a large would warrant such a conclusion. In and influential body—the graduates matters of University interest Rouge et and undergraduates of Trinity. The Noir was as plain spoken then as now. stand them aright—should meet with ever, for his concern, and can assure due consideration. Adverse criticism him that we will never wantonly ex-

proceedings in Arts, Divinity, Medicare lable right to exercise our judgment eyes of the world by any declension

> It is our duty here to state that remonstrance from the CHANCELLOR on University matters, conveyed to us coupled with an intimation that a continuance in the course adopted by us might render it necessary to bring the matter before the notice of the College Council. The CHANCELLOR in alleging his reasons for disapproval, We question whether a

But further-and this is the most