

	PAGE
Chapter VIII. Another Record of the Cachiquel Kings: The Altar at Copan	151
“ IX. The Inscriptions in the Light of Other Historical Documents: The Histories of the Quiches and the Cachiquels	156
“ X. The Inscriptions in the Light of Other Historical Documents: The Histories of the Oaxacans, Mayas, etc.	170
“ XI. An Analysis of the History of the Inscriptions in the Light of Written Documents	179
“ XII. The Inscriptions from Chichen-Itza: That of the Chichanchob	185
“ XIII. The Inscriptions from Chichen-Itza: That of the Akatzeeb	193
“ XIV. The Text and Translation of the Chichen-Itza Inscriptions	197
“ XV. The History Recorded in the Chichen-Itza Documents	201
“ XVI. The Affiliation of the Maya-Quiche Languages and Tribes	206
“ XVII. Facts Connected with this Affiliation	212
Appendix I. Notes to the Chapters	217
“ II. Table of the Most Commonly Recurring Symbols	231
“ III. Comparative Vocabulary of Maya and Malay-Polynesian Words	232
Index	240
The Oldest Written Records of the League of the Iroquois	245
REV. JOHN CAMPBELL, LL.D.
Analysis of Inscriptions	268
Language and Religion	273
REV. JOHN MACLEAN, PH.D.
Famous Algonquins: Algie Legends	285
JAMES CLELAND HAMILTON, M.A., LL.B.
Algie Legends and Hiawatha Myths	307
Primitive Nature Study	313
ALEX. F. CHAMBERLAIN, PH.D.
The Magnetic Influence of the Sun on the Earth and on Comets	345
ARTHUR HARVEY, ESQ.
The Contest for the Command of Lake Erie in 1812-1813	359
LIEUT.-COL. ERNEST CRUKSHANK.
The Mesenteric Filaments in Zoanthus Sociatus (Ellis)	387
J. PLAYFAIR McMURRICH, M.A., PH.D.
I. Historical	387
II. Descriptive { The Ciliated Bands	391
{ The Glandular Streak	395
III. The Development of the Filaments in Egg Embryos	398
IV. The Development of the Filaments in Birds	400
V. Conclusion	401
References	403