The home force of this society is represented by 267 auxiliary societies. Amount of money raised during year, $28,517. The society has work in China, Japan, and India. In Amoy a girls' boarding school with 48 pupils, a day school, a Bible school, and a children's home are supported. In Japan 103 pupils are in the Ferris Seminary, at Yokohama.

At Nagasaki the Jonathan Sturges Seminary has 22 pupils. In India 3 important stations are occupied, viz., Vellore, Madanapalle, and Tindivanum, with surrounding towns.

In the Hindu Girls' School, at Vellore, are 111 pupils, 61 at Madanapalle, and 49 at Tindivanum. Beside this, work is done among the native women in the zenanas. Eight high-caste girls' schools have 585 pupils.

The Missionary Gleaner, organ of the society, has 1485 subscribers.

In 1881 the Woman's Board assumed the entire cast of all the work carried on by the board in the various missions for women and girls.

Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Evangelical Lutheran Church General Synod.—

Corresponding Secretary, Miss M. II. Morris, 406 North Greene Street, Baltimore, Md.

This society prints a report only once in two years, after their Biennial Convention. The statistics given below are the latest. Number of Synodical societies corresponding to the district Synods in the General Synod, 20; number of auxiliaries, including young people's societies and children's bands, 566; number of members, active, honorary, and life, 14,472. Amount of money contributed for the year ending March 31st, 1890, $22,752. Besides work in some of the Western States, the society has foreign work in India and Africa. In India zenana, educational, and medical work is carried on. There are 12 schools, with 24 teachers and 719 pupils, located in Guntur and neighboring towns. A very successful industrial school has been established for Mohammedan girls and women, and a boarding-school with 35 pupils. The medical work is prosperous, and a tract of land has been secured upon which a hospital will be built. The women have a department in the Missionary Journal, which is published by the General Society.

Congregational Societies.—Auxiliary to the American Board of Foreign Missions and independent of each other are 3 organizations which are the channels of woman's foreign missionary work in the Congregational churches of the United States, viz.:

Woman's Board of Missions, Woman's Board of Missions of the Interior, Woman's Board of Missions for the Pacific.
