

ings ; and then it was so pleasant to explain to them all the mysteries that were explainable. And this was more than half a century ago, before the idea of entering the medical profession had ever been contemplated by the coming sovereigns of the universe.—EDWARD WORTHINGTON, M. D., Sherbrooke, P.Q., in the Canadian Magazine.