Magazine Readers

may safely be regarded as men of intelligence who can appreciate what will affect their interests favorably.

A low death-rate effects the position of a life insurance company favorably.

The Temperance and General Life Assurance Company has had a lower death-rate in its Temperance Section than has ever been recorded by any other company of equal size for so long a period. It should therefore have the patronage of Magazine Readers.

HON. G. W. ROSS, President.

H. SUTHERLAND, Managing Director.
