CARRIAGES

There is considerable pleasure in using a light, easy running carriage. Some Carriages suggest the idea of a lumber wagon more than anything else, and are an increasing source of annoyance. The trouble is in the Gear, and we have given this part of our Carriages very careful attention. Ladies who favor us with their orders will find that for properly fitted, neatly made, and tastefully upholstered Carriages, our goods excell. Wide awake business people will see our Carriages and buy them.
