Mercantile Summary.

THE newly elected president of the New York Stock Exchange is not inappropriately named W. L. Bull.

P. BRODEUR, a lumber dealer of St. Hugues, Que., is reported missing, and a meeting of his creditors has been called to appoint a curator to the estate.

A MILLER in Pembroke shipped last week direct to England 100 tons of flour. This is the first shipment of this kind across the Atlantic Ocean made from Pembroke.

THE immigrants brought by the Allan steamships "Parisian" and "Buenos Ayrean," who arrived in Montreal last Saturday and Sunday evenings, numbered over one thousand.

A YOUNG man named C. L. Desaulniers, who began a general business at Nicolet, Que., about two years ago without capital, has got into the hands of the assignee. He owes about $2,800.

It is said that when Mrs. F. Saywell commenced business in the crockery line in this city her capital did not exceed $150. She has now arranged a compromise of 40 cents on liabilities of $1,200. J. Green & Sons, dealers in boots and shoes, also of this city, have assigned.

A. MOSES, a Brockville clothier, is reported assigned. He went to that place about four years ago from Montreal, where he had failed in the same business, and was only in business at Brockville two years when he made a compromise of 55 cents on liabilities of $3,500. His present indebtedness is not stated.

JOSEPH LACASSE, of Valleyfield, Que., is a painter who was doing well at his trade. A few years ago he went into keeping a hardware stock, and has got beyond his depth, a demand of assignment having just been served on him. Joseph should have stuck to his paint and brushes.
