show ab anomand's siever good (Translation) de noitheannach and as

From the Canadian Minister to France, to the French Minister of Foreign Affairs

No. 29. Collaboration ob their threat stay

CANADIAN LEGATION,

Paris, November 29, 1928.

Your Excellency,—I have the honour to inform you that His Majesty's Government in Canada desires the effects of the Convention signed in London on February 2nd, 1922, by the Plenipotentiaries of His Majesty the King the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and His Excellency President of the French Republic, respecting legal proceedings in civil and commercial matters, to be extended to Canada.

According to paragraph (b) of the Final Provisions, the said Convention may be applied to the Dominions by a simple notification.

This Convention may come into force between France and Canada from to-day's date, the present communication taking the place of a notification.

The Canadian authorities to whom judicial and extrajudicial acts of "commissions recent reactions". "commissions rogatoires" are to be transmitted are the Attorney-General the any of the Provinces; the Commissioner of the North-West Territories;

The language in which communications and translations are to be made be English, except for the President and translations are to be made will be English, except for the Province of Quebec, where either French of English may be used

I have the honour to be, etc.,

PHILIPPE ROY. Canadian Minister.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs, Palais d'Orsav. Paris.

From the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, to the Canadian Minister to Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Department of Administrative and Technical Affairs. Sub-Department of Chancelleries and Litigious Affairs.

FRENCH REPUBLIC.

Paris, February 8, 1929.

Monsieur le Ministre,—I reply to your note of November 29 last and govern subsequent communications, informing me of the desire of His Majesty's Government in Canada that the effects of the Conventions ment in Canada that the effects of the Convention of February 2, 1922, on the proceedings should be extended to that country, I have the honour to state the French Government, which has been informed of the the French Government, which has been informed of this notification, regards as a convention as entering into force between France and Canada as from date of this letter.