

Meetings

The Contractor, in consultation with the departmental representative, will coordinate meetings which will be required with the appropriate individuals.

Conclusion

The research study should result, in the final analysis, in a practical approach to corporate sponsorship of international cultural activities which will remain under the ownership of the Department but that will be intended for use by the departmental artistic, academic and sport clients.