

[Private Members' Business was called pursuant to provisional Standing Order 15(3)]

By unanimous consent, on motion of Mr. Stewart, seconded by Mr. McNulty, it was ordered,—That the subject-matter of Bill C-176, An Act to amend the Criminal Code (Insanity at time of trial), be referred to the Standing Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs.

(Notices of Motions)

By unanimous consent, on motion of Mr. Stewart, seconded by Mr. McNulty, it was ordered,—That the subject-matter of Private Members' Notice of Motion Number 38, as follows: That the Standing Committee on Transport and Communications be empowered to study the question of automobile safety, be referred to the Standing Committee on Justice and Legal Affairs.

Mr. Walker, seconded by Mr. Davis, moved,—That, in order to provide elected representation on the boards of Crown corporations and other companies as may be owned, operated, or controlled by the federal government, this House is of the opinion that the government should consider the advisability and the expediency of taking such steps as will provide for the appointment, from time to time, of Members of this House as unpaid directors of some or all of such Crown corporations or companies for a term not longer than the life of one Parliament.—(Notice of Motion No. 17).

And debate arising thereon;

The hour for Private Members' Business expired.

The House resumed consideration in Committee of the Whole of Bill C-178, An Act respecting the organization of the Government of Canada and matters related or incidental thereto;

And the House continuing in Committee;

Objection being taken in Committee to the decision of the Chairman (Mr. Batten) on a point of order, and an appeal being made to Mr. Speaker;

Mr. Speaker, pursuant to section 4 of provisional Standing Order 59, resumed the Chair, and the Chairman of the Committee made the following report: "When clause 8 of Bill C-178, An Act respecting the organization of the Government of Canada and matters related or incidental thereto, was being considered, the honourable Member for Winnipeg North Centre (Mr. Knowles) proposed to move the following amendment,—

"That clause 8 of Bill C-178 be amended by inserting therein immediately after sub-paragraph (a) the following new sub-paragraph:

"(b) review of prices and matters of concern to consumers;"

and by re-lettering the subsequent sub-paragraphs as (c), (d) and (e).
