

Principal Irvine

It is too early yet to say what one's plans may be for next year. You remember my telling you of my hopes of a visit to the other side. If that should not come off I shall look forward to seeing you when you come to the British Association meetings. You must remember that you will always have a very warm welcome in our home and Mrs. Irvine, if she accompanies you, one equally cordial.

I shall always be glad to have a letter from you.

With all good wishes, I am,

Yours faithfully,
