

Two Cases of Syphilis having a Bearing on the Question of the Period
during which the Disease is Communicable

BY

JAMES BELL, M. D.

Assistant Professor of Surgery and Clinical Surgery,
McGill University ; Surgeon to the Royal Victoria Hospital and Consulting
Surgeon to the Montreal
General Hospital

REPRINTED FROM THE
JOURNAL OF CUTANEOUS AND GENITO-URINARY DISEASES
FOR FEBRUARY, 1895

