

Sixth—The encouraging the formation of a Local Endowment Fund, at every station or place having a Church or Clergyman, by special contributions, or by setting apart a portion of the Pew-rents, to form an accumulating fund until the net income shall in each case amount to £50 per annua; for the more effectual promotion of which object, the Society will engage, whenever such fund shall be formed and shall amount to £100, invested in Bank-stock or other public securities, to add thereto such an amount, not exceeding £100, as the funds of the Society, from time to time, shall admit of; provided always that such investment shall stand in the name of the President of the Society.

Seventh—The management and superintendence of all lands belonging to the Society.

ARTICLE XI.

All meetings of the Society and of the Committees shall be opened and closed with such prayers as the Bishop may appoint.

No alteration or amendment in the Constitution or By-laws of the Society shall be made, unless the general nature of such alteration or amendment shall have been proposed at the next previous General Meeting of the Society, provided that not less than one month intervene between the two Meetings and that the object of the Meetings be stated in the advertisement by which they are called. At all Meetings of the Society, of the Central Board, or of Committees, the Chairman, in case of an equality of votes, shall have a double or casting vote.

ARTICLE XII.

Whereas some members of the Church, who are not unmindful of the great Spiritual wants of their own neighbourhood, still feel constrained, in pious gratitude for the blessings they enjoy, to allot something, however small, from the means with which a Gracious Providence has blessed them, towards the spread of the glorious Gospel among the nations which still sit in darkness; the Society will gladly receive and forward to the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel, the Church Missionary Society, or the London Society for the Promoting Christianity among the Jews, whatever sums may be given for the conversion and instruction of the Heathen or the Jews.
