

rable gifts which a people can dream of. Then shall those ideas, those desires be realized, which were lately expressed in the language of the gods by D. F. McCarthy:

"The past shines clear and pleasant;
"There is glory in the present;
"And the future, like a crescent,
"Lights the deepening sky of time.
"And that sky will yet grow brighter
"If the worker and writer
"And the sceptre and the mitre
"Join in sacred bonds sublime
"With two glories shining o'er them
"Up the coming years they'll climb
"Earth's great evening at its prime."
