

69. On the decease of any teacher or inspector, his wife, her husband, or legal representative, shall be entitled to receive back the full amount paid into the superannuation fund by such teacher or inspector, with interest at the rate of seven per cent. per annum.

70.—(1) Every teacher or inspector who, while engaged in his profession, contributed to the superannuated teachers' fund as provided by this Act, shall on reaching the age of sixty years be entitled to retire from the profession at his discretion, and receive an allowance or pension at the rate of $6 per annum, for every year of such service in Ontario, upon furnishing to the Education Department satisfactory evidence of good moral character, of his age, and of the length of his service as teacher or inspector.

(2) Every pension payable under this Act may be supplemented out of local funds by any municipal council, public school board or board of education, at its pleasure.

(3) To remove doubts, nothing in this section contained, shall be held as applying to any person who, prior to 1871, had ceased to be engaged in his profession as teacher, and has not heretofore contributed to the said fund.

71. Every teacher or inspector under sixty years of age who has contributed as aforesaid, and who is disabled from practicing his profession, shall be entitled to a like pension, or local supplementary allowance, upon furnishing the like evidence, and by furnishing to the Education Department from time to time, in addition thereto, satisfactory evidence of his being disabled.

72. Every teacher entitled to receive an allowance from the superannuated teachers' fund, who holds a first or second class provincial certificate, or a first-class county board certificate, or who is an authorized head master of a high school or collegiate institute, shall in addition to the said allowance or pension be entitled to receive a further allowance at the rate of $1 per annum for every year of service while he held such certificate, or while he acted as head master of a high school or collegiate institute.

73. The retiring allowance shall cease at the close of the year of the death of the recipient, and may be discontinued at any time should the pensioned teacher fail to maintain a good moral character, to be vouched for (when requested) to the satisfaction of the Education Department.

74. If any pensioned teacher or inspector shall, with the consent of the Education Department, resume the profession of teaching or inspecting, the payment of his allowance shall be suspended from the time of his being so engaged.

75. In case any pensioned teacher or inspector is again placed on the superannuation list, a pension for the additional time of service shall be allowed him, on his compliance with this Act, and regulations of the Education Department.
