

of the same while in actual use, one day's work for each day the said scraper may be thus employed, and if any laborer or driver shall refuse or neglect to work faithfully, or to carry sufficient loads during the time above mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for the said Pathmaster, and he is hereby authorized and required to discharge such laborer, and the person furnishing such team shall be liable to the forfeiture which every such person would have incurred by virtue of this By-Law, in case such laborer had not attended, or such team and driver had not been sent, and shall not be allowed for the part or portion of the day which he may have labored.

Sec. 11.—And be it enacted, That the several Pathmasters in the Township, shall cause all Statute Labor under their direction and control to be performed, and all monies coming into their hands in lieu of Statute Labor, to be expended between the first day of June and the first day of August in each and every year, and in default thereof, shall be liable to forfeit, (to be expended on the roads in the Township in the succeeding year,) the same sum as is hereinafter imposed for neglecting or refusing to take the oath of office.

Sec. 12.—And be it enacted, That every person liable to perform Statute Labor in the Township or Division, and not having compounded for the same according to Law who shall neglect or refuse, after having been duly notified as hereinbefore provided, to attend himself or send a sufficient able-bodied man in his stead, with such carriage, team, implement or instrument, as may be by this By-Law required by the Pathmaster at the time and place appointed, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five shillings for each day he shall so neglect or refuse to be recovered on complaint of the said Pathmaster, by warrant under the hand and seal of a Magistrate, by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of the person so offending, rendering the overplus if any there be to the party, after deducting the penalty and legal charges attending such distress and sale, and the imposing of any such fine or penalty on any person, shall not in anywise release such person from performing any duty required of him by this By-Law, but he shall be liable and subject to perform the same at any time within the current year, when called upon so to do by the proper officer, as though no such penalty had been imposed.

Sec. 13.—And be it enacted, That if any person shall wilfully stop any road or roads in any division in this Township, or shall pull down or destroy any fence, railing or guard, that shall have been erected along any water, bridge or precipice for the safety of travellers, or any guide or finger post, such person or persons so offending, shall forfeit and pay on conviction for every such offence, a sum not less than five shillings nor more than five pounds, to be recovered in the manner provided by the preceding clause of this By-Law, or in case any tree or trees shall be cut down in or fall out of any enclosed land or other lands which shall be occupied by a resident settler, in such a way as to
